To whom it may concern –

I can confirm that I have inspected the income and expenditure accounts of Brunswick Accordion Band for the period 1st April 2023 until 31st March 2024 and find them to be in order.

Despite being a small community organisation, the band show a good standard of accurate book keeping and banking and I am content that all financial procedures are transparent and accurate.

Receipts and Invoices are filed appropriately with all payment references recorded.

The band make good use of their bank providers services in terms of internet banking and cheque payments and as such there are full records for all transactions.
