Trustees' Report

For the year ended 31st December 2022 (cont'd)

During the year ended 31st December 2022 the charity conducted the following activities in furtherance of its activities for the public benefit;

1. Donations were made to nine other masonic charities, allowing them to continue their own charitable activities, providing assistance to freemasons and their families in need, as well as supporting other charities in their communities.
2. The following donations were made to support the charitable activities conducted by these bodies;

Northern Ireland Children's Hospice	£940
Limavady Initiative for the Prevention of Suicide	£1,000
Northern Ireland Hospice	£2,500
Royal Victoria Hospital - Neurology Unit	£1,040
The Donegal Hospice	€1,200
Irish Red Cross - Cresslough Appeal	€250

In addition, £10,115 was donated to the Grand Master's Festival, Vision 2020, to support the activities of the following charities; the Royal National Lifeboat Institution, Medecins Sans Frontier, Simon Communities of Ireland and the Simon Community Northern Ireland.

The results of the charity's activities during the year and of its position at the year end are included in the Receipts and payments account on page 5 and the Statement of assets and liabilities on page 6. The trustees are thankful for the support of the brethren forming the membership of the charity and their guests, through their continued generous donations which are used to further the charity's purposes, which have been detailed above.

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of The Provincial Grand Lodge of Londonderry and Donegal
Council of Charity and Welfare

We report on the accounts of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Londonderry and Donegal Council of Charity and Welfare for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on pages 5 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and our examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

Our examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

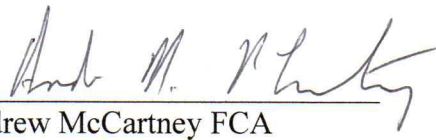

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to our attention giving us cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
