Objects and activities of the charity

The purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document

The purposes of the charity are to promote the Christian religion, relieve poverty, and advance education among poor, disadvantaged or orphaned children in the area of benefit and in particular:

- to establish, maintain and equip an orphanage or orphanages in the area of benefit for such children;
- to promote religion through practical demonstrations of Christian charity.

The main activities undertaken in relation to those purposes during the year

Educate the Orphans is a small Christian charity working in Kenya with orphaned and needy children.

Our goals are primarily to feed, clothe and educate destitute children, with the emphasis mainly on education.

We have been active in Tharaka, Kenya since 1990 and in that time we have built and run seven schools which currently educate and feed over 3,000 children.

Educate the Orphans do not run an orphanage but instead we assist wider family circles to take the orphaned/needy children into their homes to give them a family upbringing, whilst Educate the Orphans shoulder the financial burden.

We operate a family orientated charity with sponsorship being our main source of funding, where the children are "adopted" by our donors. We encourage communication between our sponsors and the children.

Most of the children educated by Educate the Orphans are now fully employed - some of them as teachers, pastors, dressmakers, shoemakers, etc. with some even working for Educate the Orphans. Others are in the government, police and army and some work for the office for the President of Kenya including Shadrack (Chief Financial Officer for the county of Tharaka), Eluid (Deputy Governor of Tharaka) and John (a bishop in EPAC).

The main activities undertaken during the year to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit

We are happy to report that 2022 has been another successful year, with many of our children excelling in their studies at schools, colleges, and universities. We have put up on ETO website some of the photographs of former ETO children, showing some of the prominent positions in Business and Government that they have achieved! Many children still being taught on our 2 ETO farms: Horticulture and Agriculture!

During the year we were able to use our new four (4) acre farm to grow fruit and vegetables and also to teach and train many of our students about growing their own food, and thanks to a generous friend, we were also able to purchase a generator and enough piping to instal a drip feed water system, now in full operation enabling this new project to be self-sufficient!

Thanks to the amazing generosity of ETO sponsors and donors we were able to meet the needs of many hundreds of people, obeying the command of Jesus "you feed them." Having sent over £157,000 this year the ETO trustees are satisfied that all two elements of Public Benefit requirements are being met and adhered to.

We also completed a new Solar driven, clean water Project for one of our primary schools at Kamathakame, bringing much needed water from a large river to over 300 children and adults at yet another extremely dry area, were we are also teaching sustainable food production.

Direct Benefits flowing from the purposes include:

- The provision of free education, such as the teaching of basic literacy, numeracy and life skills which can enable the beneficiaries to find employment in the future or, at a minimum, to be able to read and write, from nursery school up to and including secondary school, under the Kenyan Government curriculum. We also help support some students through technical college or university, where appropriate.
- This education also includes a greater understanding of the Christian faith.
- The teaching of agricultural and horticultural skills, which aid self-sufficiency and food production that also leads to health benefits.
- The direct provision of food and sustenance during periods of drought or famine. We have an ongoing policy that we will provide at least two (2) meals every day, for every child who attends any of our schools. The meals consist of a grain cereal, Sorghum porridge at breakfast time. Boiled maize/millet, chickpeas and beans, which is the stable diet of the local people, which now includes our home grown fresh fruits: watermelon, bananas, oranges, groundnuts, and mangoes (Sometimes a little meat is provided, when and where possible,)

Other direct health benefits through projects such as the provision of fresh water through our water treatment plant. The benefits can be demonstrated as tangible through the practical building and existence of 7 schools, a 10 bed maternity unit, a water treatment plant (and the supply of clean water to many hundreds of people from it) and through reports, photographs and other resources available at eto-ministries.org as well as feedback from those who have visited the work in Kenya.

Educate The Orphans

We fail to see how any harm could come to any of the children in any way by our work and we would not be involved in it if there were any chance of harm to any child with the beneficiaries from our work are orphaned and needy children, and some old/infirm people of Tharaka, Kenya.

There are positively no private benefits to any person/organization involved in or connected to the work of Educate the Orphans which are more than incidental; some Kenyan staffing is employed to look after the children in Kenya, helping to feed, teach and care for them. The payment of such staff is incidental to the fulfilment of the purposes. Otherwise, we are all volunteers and pay all of our own expenses. No fees are charged - we operate a completely free service to all our beneficiaries, who are all the neediest of children, and old people in the bush area of Tharaka, Kenya, who would have absolutely no chance of any kind of life without the help of Educate the Orphans.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in managing the activities of the charity.

The main achievements and performance of the charity during the year

In 2022 ETO again had another successfully year, meeting our call to feed, clothe and educate the poor and needy orphans of Tharaka, Kenya.

We would like to express our gratitude to all who participated and donated time or money to help Educate the Orphans.

During this year ETO has undertaken a number of additional projects, listed below.

- The completion of new classrooms and Power Lines at our Muguna Anna school.
- Updating the school bus.
- The purchase of a new solar panel pump for the water programme at Kamathakame
- The purchase of a new generator for our new 4-acre shamba/farm at Ithuguri.
- We also had to replace the roof at our mission house in Kaguma.

Our children continue to excel in their studies at schools, colleges and universities. The website continues to show photographs of former ETO children and some of the prominent positions they hold in business and government.

Many children are still being taught horticulture and agriculture skills on our ETO farm.

Famine relief

One of our most important programs is our Famine relief programme where we have undertaken to feed many hundreds of destitute old people. Due to the continued famine and drought in Kenya the need for this programme only grows.

Traditionally the Kenyan people rely on the rain they receive from 2 rainy seasons, however over the last few years there has been little to no rain. The lack of rain has had a devastating effect on the Kenyan people resulting in famine across much of Kenya.

As we reported last year food Inflation continues to be a major issue. A 1kg bag of Maize which is the staple food for most people in Kenya would have cost 14p in 2015, 70p in 2019. It now costs 96p in 2022.

In November 2022. A team of 6 ETO volunteers travelled to Keyna and distributed much need food aid to those most vulnerable.

Educate The Orphans

Our ETO Shambas (Farms) at Ruungu and Ithuguri

We are also pleased to report that both ETO Farms are still producing well, with the results that we were able to share crops of fresh fruit and vegetables with our own children and sixteen other schools in our vicinity.

Our two cows are producing enough milk each day to provide Muguna-anna nursery and primary school kids a cup of milk each day.

Many of our older sixth former pupils are being taught on ETO farms how to grow their own food, "Farming Gods Way."

These farms help us to mitigate the rising food prices while still feeding our children.

The purchase of a pump generator at Ithuguri also allowed us to better utilize the water source at the bottom of the shamba helping to increase our yield.

Clean Water Project

Before ETO the Tharaka people got their water from seep holes and dirty ponds that were frequently visited by animals. Drinking this contaminated water can bring various diseases and death. ETO therefore decided to build a water treatment plant to bring clean fresh water.

In order to bring fresh water to Tharaka the water would have to travel 40 Kilometres from Mount Kenya. ETO built a water treatment plant approx. 26 Kilometres from Mount Kenya. This treatment centre now provides access to clean water for approx. 60,000 people.

We also build and provide large storage tanks as well as containers to the people.

ETO Pastor Training Programme

In Nov 2022 we held a Pastor's training seminar at our church in Kaguma with a number of our ETO Pastors in attendance.

These Pastors are continuing to take the Gospel to remote areas as well as towns.

Building Programmes

ETO, in conjunction with some former students have built a number of new classrooms at our school in Muguna Anna. These classrooms are being used for the new COMPETENCE BASED CURRICULUM, as instructed by the Kenyan Government.

Fundraising activities during the year

ETO relies on the voluntary donations that it receives by way of standing orders and other sundry donations. In addition to these we held one fundraising event, a coffee morning in Christian Fellowship Church Belfast raising £12,750. We would like to say a Big thank you to everyone who donated at or after the event.

Thanks be to God for his continuing provision and blessing over ETO Kenya. Educate the Orphans would like to thank all our supporters who: -

- Have been praying continuously for the work of ETO
- Donated to our various projects
- Volunteered with us by giving up their time.

Policies on reserves

The charity aims to hold an amount in reserves that is equivalent to the running costs for a year. As at 31 December 2022 the charity held £64,758 in reserves and this would be sufficient to run the charity for approximately five months based on current levels of expenditure. However, as very little of the running costs are fixed costs the reserves are deemed to be sufficient.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees is satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended and The Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015

In particular, charity law requires the Trustees, if they prepare accounts on an accruals basis, to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to :-

- to prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).
- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the statutory responsibility of the Independent Examiner in relation to the Trustees' report is limited to examining the report and ensuring that, on the face of the report, there are no material inconsistencies with the figures disclosed in the financial statements.

This report was approved by the board of trustees on 10 October 2023.

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees of the charity on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2022

I report on the financial statements of the charity on pages 12 to 21 for the year ended 31 December 2022 which have been prepared in accordance with the Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended (the Act) and with the Financial Reporting Standard 102, (effective 1st January 2016) adapted to meet the needs of unincorporated organisations, as modified by FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015, (as amended by the Bulletin issued in February 2016), published by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland (CCNI), effective January 2015 (The SORP), under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 16.

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and the Independent Examiner

As described on page 8, the charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The Trustees consider that the audit requirement of 65(2) of The Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended (The Act) does not apply, and that there is no requirement in the Governing Document for the conducting of an audit. As a consequence, the Trustees have elected that the financial statements be subject to independent examination.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under any legal provision, or otherwise, and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:-

- a) examine the accounts under Section 65(3) of the Act;
- b) follow the procedures in the Directions to Independent Examiners made by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland and;
- c) state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Educate The Orphans

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees of the charity on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2022

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement and scope of work undertaken

I conducted my examination in accordance with the Directions to Independent Examiners made by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland, setting out the duties of an Independent Examiner in relation to the conducting of an Independent Examination. An Independent Examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and of the accounting systems employed by the charity and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements, and seeking explanations from you, as Trustees, concerning such matters. The purpose of the examination is to establish as far as possible that there have been no breaches of charity legislation and that the financial statements comply with the SORP, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and information supplied by the Trustees in the course of the examination is not subjected to audit tests or enquiries, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the financial statements, and in particular, I express no opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charity, and my report is limited to the matters set out in the statement below.

I planned and performed my examination so as to satisfy myself that the objectives of the Independent Examination are achieved and before finalising the report I obtained written assurances from the Trustees of all material matters.

1 Accounting policies

Policies relating to the production of the accounts.

Basis of preparation and accounting convention

The accounts have been prepared on the accruals basis, under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard 102, (effective 1st January 2016) and 'FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015, (as amended by the Bulletin issued in February 2016), published by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland (CCNI) , effective January 2016, and in accordance with all applicable law in the charity's jurisdiction of registration.

Risks and future assumptions

The charity is a public benefit entity.

Policies relating to categories of income and income recognition.

Nature of income

Gross income represents the value, net of discounts, of goods provided to customers and work carried out in respect of services provided to customers.

Categories of Income

Income is categorised as income from exchange transactions (contract income) and income from non-exchange transactions (gifts), investment income and other income.

Income from exchange transactions is received by the charity for goods or services supplied under contract or where entitlement is subject to fulfilling performance related conditions. The income the charity receives is approximately equal in value to the goods or services supplied by the charity to the purchaser.

Income from a non-exchange transaction is where the charity receives value from the donor without providing equal value in exchange, and includes donations of money, goods and services freely given without giving equal value in exchange.

Income recognition

Income, whether from exchange or non exchange transactions, is recognised in the statement of financial activities (SOFA) on a receivable basis, when a transaction or other event results in an increase in the charity's assets or a reduction in its liabilities and only when the charity has legal entitlement, the income is probable and can be measured reliably.

Income subject to terms and conditions which must be met before the charity is entitled to the resources is not recognised until the conditions have been met.

All income is accounted for gross, before deducting any related fees or costs.

Educate The Orphans

Policies relating to expenditure on goods and services provided to the charity.

Recognition of liabilities and expenditure

A liability, and the related expenditure, is recognised when a legal or constructive obligation exists as a result of a past event, and when it is more likely than not that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement, and when the amount of the obligation can be measured or reliably estimated.

Liabilities arising from future funding commitments and constructive obligations, including performance related grants, where the timing or the amount of the future expenditure required to settle the obligation are uncertain, give rise to a provision in the accounts, which is reviewed at the accounting year end. The provision is increased to reflect any increases in liabilities, and is decreased by the utilisation of any provision within the period, and reversed if any provision is no longer required. These movements are charged or credited to the respective funds and activities to which the provision relates.

Volunteers

In accordance with the SORP, and in recognition of the difficulties in placing a monetary value on the contribution from volunteers, the contribution of volunteers is not included within the income of the charity.

However, the trustees value the significant contribution made to the activities of the charity by unpaid volunteers and this is described more fully in Note 3.

Policies relating to assets, liabilities and provisions and other matters.

Cash and bank balances

Cash held by the charity is included at the amount actually held and counted at the year end. Bank balances, whether in credit or overdrawn, are shown at the amounts properly reconciled to the bank statements.

Fund Accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.

2 Winding up or dissolution of the charity

If upon winding up or dissolution of the charity there remain any assets, after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, the assets represented by the accumulated fund shall be transferred to some other charitable body or bodies having similar objects to the charity.

3 The contribution of volunteers

The charity depends on the support of its volunteers, which is much appreciated. The arrangements with volunteers are difficult to value precisely in monetary terms and have not been recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities. The volunteers and the charity accept and agree that no contract of employment is created by these arrangements.
