Educate The Orphans

Objects and activities of the charity

The purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document

The purposes of the charity are to promote the Christian religion, relieve poverty, and advance education among poor, disadvantaged or orphaned children in the area of benefit and in particular:

- to promote religion through practical demonstrations of Christian charity.

The main activities undertaken in relation to those purposes during the year

Educate the Orphans is a small Christian charity working in Kenya with orphaned and needy children.

Our goals are primarily to feed, clothe and educate destitute children, with the emphasis mainly on education.

We have been active in Tharaka, Kenya since 1990 and in that time we have built and run seven schools which currently educate and feed over 3,000 children.

Educate the Orphans do not run an orphanage but instead we assist wider family circles to take the orphaned/needy children into their homes to give them a family upbringing, whilst Educate the Orphans shoulder the financial burden.

We operate a family orientated charity with sponsorship being our main source of funding, where the children are "adopted" by our donors. We encourage communication between our sponsors and the children.

Most of the children educated by Educate the Orphans are now fully employed - some of them as teachers, pastors, dressmakers, shoemakers, etc. with some even working for Educate the Orphans. Others are in the government, police and army and some work for the office for the President of Kenya including Shadrack (Chief Financial Officer for the county of Tharaka), Eluid (Deputy Governor of Tharaka) and John (a bishop in EPAC).

The main activities undertaken during the year to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit

We are happy to report that 2024 has been yet another very successful year, with many of our children excelling in their studies at schools, colleges, and universities. As usual we have put up on ETO website some of the photographs of the work completed this year and from our most recent trip to Tharaka (November 2024).

We are pleased to report the continued academic enhancement of our children in all our schools, in addition to life skills being taught on our 3 ETO farms: (Horticulture, Agriculture, and food production).

During the year we were able to expand the use of our new four (4) acre farm to grow fruit and vegetables and to teach and train many of our students how to grow their own food. The harvest from this shamba is helping this project to produce watermelons, onions and tomatoes amongst other crops with the excess being sold very cheaply to local communities to help the poor and needy. We are planning to cultivate a couple of acres to produce Paw-Paw trees, an excellent food source for our people. One fruit from a Paw-Paw tree we are told can feed four children.

During our trip in November the team of 5 visited several of our sites in Kenya, and were delighted to see for ourselves the continuing improvement of ETO's work with the orphaned and needy children of this barren area. We were especially blessed to open another rescue centre for trafficked boys.

Thanks to the amazing generosity of ETO sponsors and donors we were able to meet the needs of many hundreds of people, obeying the command of Jesus, "you feed them,". Due to this generosity we were able to send approximately £100,000 to Kenya this year. The ETO trustees, team and donors are satisfied that all elements of Public Benefit requirements are being met and adhered to.

Our solar driven clean water project at Kamathakame is continuing to bring much needed water from a large river to over 300 children and adults in an area which is usually extremely dry. We are also teaching sustainable food production and are pleased to announce another clean water project is currently in the progress of being completed at another rescue centre where there are 38 destitute children who were rescued from traffickers. We expect this project to be completed early in 2025.

Educate The Orphans

Direct Benefits flowing from the purposes include:

- The provision of free education, such as the teaching of basic literacy, numeracy and life skills which can enable the beneficiaries to find employment in the future or, at a minimum, to be able to read and write, from nursery school up to and including secondary school, under the Kenyan Government curriculum. We also help support some students through technical college or university, where appropriate.
- This education also includes a greater understanding of the Christian faith.
- The teaching of agricultural and horticultural skills, which aid self-sufficiency and food production that also leads to health benefits.
- The direct provision of food and sustenance during periods of drought or famine. We have an ongoing policy that we will provide at least two (2) meals every day, for every child who attends any of our schools. The meals consist of a grain cereal, Sorghum porridge at breakfast time. Boiled maize/millet, chickpeas and beans, which is the staple diet of the local people, which now includes our home grown fresh fruits: watermelon, bananas, oranges, groundnuts, and mangoes (Sometimes a little meat is provided, when and where possible,)

Other direct health benefits through projects such as the provision of fresh water through our water treatment plant. The benefits can be demonstrated as tangible through the practical building and existence of 7 schools, a 10 bed maternity unit, a water treatment plant (and the supply of clean water to many hundreds of people from it) and through reports, photographs and other resources available at eto-ministries.org.

We fail to see how any harm could come to any of the children in any way by our work and we would not be involved in it if there were any chance of harm to any child with the beneficiaries from our work are orphaned and needy children, and some old/infirm people of Tharaka, Kenya.

There are positively no private benefits to any person/organization involved in or connected to the work of Educate the Orphans which are more than incidental; some Kenyan staffing is employed to look after the children in Kenya, helping to feed, teach and care for them. The payment of such staff is incidental to the fulfilment of the purposes. Otherwise, we are all volunteers and pay all of our own expenses. No fees are charged - we operate a completely free service to all our beneficiaries, who are all the neediest of children, and old people in the bush area of Tharaka, Kenya, who would have absolutely no chance of any kind of life without the help of Educate the Orphans.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit in managing the activities of the charity.

Educate The Orphans

The main achievements and performance of the charity during the year

During this year ETO continued to support needy and orphaned children through.

- feeding,
- clothing
- and educating.

We also extended our rescue centre for children rescued from people traffickers. This extension houses an additional 32 children in need.

We continued our famine relief program, which helps feed many destitute old people and in Dec 2024 we started the building of a gravity fed water system for the children living in the Iterguru children's home.

Our ETO Shambas (Farms) continue to produce well and help to protect us from rising food prices and aid our children eat a more balanced diet.

Fundraising activities during the year

ETO relies on the voluntary donations that it receives by way of standing orders and other sundry donations.

Educate the Orphans would like to thank all our supporters who: -

- Have been praying continuously for the work of ETO
- Donated to our various projects
- Volunteered with us by giving up their time.

The difference the charity's performance during the year has made to the beneficiaries of the charity and the wider society

The details of the positive impact the charity has made in the lives of the poor, disadvantaged or orphaned children in Tharaka, Kenya and to the wider society in that area can be found in the other sections of this report, namely:

- The main activities undertaken during the year to further the charity's purpose for the public benefit;
- The main achievements and performance of the charity during the year.

Structure, governance and management of the charity

The methods used to recruit and appoint new charity trustees

The charity recruits and appoints trustees with a range of skills, experience and knowledge in keeping with the pursuance of its objects.

Educate The Orphans

Financial review

The charity's financial position at the end of the year ended 31 December 2024

The financial position of the charity at 31 December 2024 and comparatives for the prior period, as more fully detailed in the accounts, can be summarised as follows:-

	2024	2023
Net income/(expenditure)	3,545	(27,880)
Unrestricted Revenue Funds available for the general purposes of the charity	40,423	36,878
Total Funds	40,423	36,878

Financial review of the position at the reporting date, 31 December 2024

The trustees consider the financial performance of the charity during the year to be satisfactory.

Educate The Orphans

Policies on reserves

The charity aims to hold an amount in reserves that is equivalent to the running costs for a year. As at 31 December 2024 the charity held £40,423 in reserves and this would be sufficient to run the charity for approximately five months based on current levels of expenditure. However, as very little of the running costs are fixed costs the reserves are deemed to be sufficient.

Availability and adequacy of assets of each of the funds

The board of trustees is satisfied that the charity's assets in each fund are available and adequate to fulfil its obligations in respect of each fund.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended and The Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2015

In particular, charity law requires the Trustees, if they prepare accounts on an accruals basis, to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity as at the end of the financial year and of the surplus or deficit of the charity. In preparing those financial statements the Trustees are required to :-

- to prepare the accounts in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law).
- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business;
- state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

The law requires that the trustees must not approve the accounts unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for the year.

The Trustees are also responsible for maintaining adequate accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and which are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with regulations made under the Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

The Trustees are also responsible for the contents of the Trustees' report, and the statutory responsibility of the Independent Examiner in relation to the Trustees' report is limited to examining the report and ensuring that , on the face of the report, there are no material inconsistencies with the figures disclosed in the financial statements.

This report was approved by the board of trustees on 6 October 2025.

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees of the charity on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2024

I report on the financial statements of the charity on pages 12 to 21 for the year ended 31 December 2024 which have been prepared in accordance with the Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended (the Act) and with the Financial Reporting Standard 102, (effective 1st January 2016) adapted to meet the needs of unincorporated organisations, as modified by FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015, (as amended by the Bulletin issued in February 2016), published by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland (CCNI), effective January 2015 (The SORP), under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 16.

Respective responsibilities of the Trustees and the Independent Examiner

As described on page 8, the charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts.

The Trustees consider that the audit requirement of 65(2) of The Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended (The Act) does not apply, and that there is no requirement in the Governing Document for the conducting of an audit. As a consequence, the Trustees have elected that the financial statements be subject to independent examination.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under any legal provision, or otherwise, and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:-

- a) examine the accounts under Section 65(3) of the Act;
- b) follow the procedures in the Directions to Independent Examiners made by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland and;
- c) state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees of the charity on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2024

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement and scope of work undertaken

I conducted my examination in accordance with the Directions to Independent Examiners made by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland, setting out the duties of an Independent Examiner in relation to the conducting of an Independent Examination. An Independent Examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and of the accounting systems employed by the charity and a comparison of the financial statements presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the financial statements, and seeking explanations from you, as Trustees, concerning such matters. The purpose of the examination is to establish as far as possible that there have been no breaches of charity legislation and that the financial statements comply with the SORP, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.

The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and information supplied by the Trustees in the course of the examination is not subjected to audit tests or enquiries, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the financial statements, and in particular, I express no opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view of the affairs of the charity, and my report is limited to the matters set out in the statement below.

I planned and performed my examination so as to satisfy myself that the objectives of the Independent Examination are achieved and before finalising the report I obtained written assurances from the Trustees of all material matters.

Report of the Independent Examiner to the Trustees of the charity on the accounts for the year ended 31 December 2024

Independent Examiner's Statement, Report and Opinion

Subject to the limitations upon the scope of my work as detailed above, in connection with my examination, I can confirm that :-

This is a report in respect of an examination carried out under 65(3) of the Act and in accordance with Directions to Independent Examiners made by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland which may be applicable; and that no matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements :-

to keep accounting records in accordance with with Section 63 of The Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended;

when preparing accounts on an accruals basis, to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act and the Regulations setting out the form and content of charity accounts; have been prepared in accordance with The Charities (Northern Ireland) Act 2008, as amended, and with the methods and principles set out in the FRS102 Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities (effective January 2016) have not been met or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in my report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached;

Notes to the Accounts for the year ended 31 December 2024

1 Accounting policies

Policies relating to the production of the accounts.

Basis of preparation and accounting convention

The accounts have been prepared on the accruals basis, under the historical cost convention, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard 102, (effective 1st January 2016) and 'FRS 102 SORP (Statement of Recommended Practice for Accounting and Reporting by Charities) 2015, (as amended by the Bulletin issued in February 2016), published by the Charity Commission in Northern Ireland (CCNI), effective January 2016, and in accordance with all applicable law in the charity's jurisdiction of registration.

Risks and future assumptions

The charity is a public benefit entity.

Policies relating to categories of income and income recognition.

Nature of income

Gross income represents the value, net of discounts, of goods provided to customers and work carried out in respect of services provided to customers.

Categories of Income

Income is categorised as income from exchange transactions (contract income) and income from non-exchange transactions (gifts), investment income and other income.

Income from exchange transactions is received by the charity for goods or services supplied under contract or where entitlement is subject to fulfilling performance related conditions. The income the charity receives is approximately equal in value to the goods or services supplied by the charity to the purchaser.

Income from a non-exchange transaction is where the charity receives value from the donor without providing equal value in exchange, and includes donations of money, goods and services freely given without giving equal value in exchange.

Income recognition

Income, whether from exchange or non exchange transactions, is recognised in the statement of financial activities (SOFA) on a receivable basis, when a transaction or other event results in an increase in the charity's assets or a reduction in its liabilities and only when the charity has legal entitlement, the income is probable and can be measured reliably.

Income subject to terms and conditions which must be met before the charity is entitled to the resources is not recognised until the conditions have been met.

All income is accounted for gross, before deducting any related fees or costs.

Educate The Orphans

Policies relating to expenditure on goods and services provided to the charity.

Recognition of liabilities and expenditure

A liability, and the related expenditure, is recognised when a legal or constructive obligation exists as a result of a past event, and when it is more likely than not that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement, and when the amount of the obligation can be measured or reliably estimated.

Liabilities arising from future funding commitments and constructive obligations, including performance related grants, where the timing or the amount of the future expenditure required to settle the obligation are uncertain, give rise to a provision in the accounts, which is reviewed at the accounting year end. The provision is increased to reflect any increases in liabilities, and is decreased by the utilisation of any provision within the period, and reversed if any provision is no longer required. These movements are charged or credited to the respective funds and activities to which the provision relates.

Volunteers

In accordance with the SORP, and in recognition of the difficulties in placing a monetary value on the contribution from volunteers, the contribution of volunteers is not included within the income of the charity.

However, the trustees value the significant contribution made to the activities of the charity by unpaid volunteers and this is described more fully in Note 3.

Policies relating to assets, liabilities and provisions and other matters.

Cash and bank balances

Cash held by the charity is included at the amount actually held and counted at the year end. Bank balances, whether in credit or overdrawn, are shown at the amounts properly reconciled to the bank statements.

Fund Accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity.

2 Winding up or dissolution of the charity

If upon winding up or dissolution of the charity there remain any assets, after the satisfaction of all debts and liabilities, the assets represented by the accumulated fund shall be transferred to some other charitable body or bodies having similar objects to the charity.

3 The contribution of volunteers

The charity depends on the support of its volunteers, which is much appreciated. The arrangements with volunteers are difficult to value precisely in monetary terms and have not been recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities. The volunteers and the charity accept and agree that no contract of employment is created by these arrangements.
