Objectives and activities

a. Background to Lord Rana Foundation Charitable Trust and its Policies and objectives

The Lord Rana Foundation Charitable Trust was established by Trust Deed dated 26 November 1996.

The charity raises funds to provide free education to poor children living in rural areas of Punjab (India). The funds transferred help support the formation and extension of a major education complex to achieve this objective.

The direct benefit which flows from this purpose is promotion of knowledge, understanding and skills encouraging development, talent and employment. Benefits are evidenced through feedback from beneficiaries, stakeholders and funders. This purpose does not give rise to any harm. The beneficiaries of this purpose are people living primarily in Northern Ireland and India. A private benefit to trustees may arise from our programme of ongoing training in good governance, finance etc. through this training trustees gain skills and experience which are transferable to other settings. These skills are incidental and necessary to ensure the benefit is provided to the beneficiaries.

b. Main activities undertaken

Development of Education

The Trust works toward providing 3rd level education to the rural areas of Punjab. In the absence of this initiative in a rural district of Punjab, the poor children living here were deprived of university education which is only available in big cities. The trust funded a major building refurbishment and extension of a high school at village Hebowal (Punjab) in 1997-99, creating better facilities for students and teachers. As a result the school was upgraded to a higher secondary school.

Peace Initiatives in Northern Ireland and India

To Promote peace an Institute for Conflict Studies & Resolution Practices (ICS&RS) is being planned which is inspired by the 2007 report of the Commonwealth Commission on Respect and Understanding, 'Civil Paths to Peace', edited by Dr Amartya Sen (noted Indian economist and philosopher). It offers a means for Commonwealth members to demonstrate practically their endorsement of the Report's recommendations. The project is constituted as a not-for-profit, charitable trust registered in both the United Kingdom and India.

Relief in Disaster Struck Areas

The Trust works towards providing relief and aid in disaster struck areas. In 2004 when a major Tsunami struck on the coasts of Srilanka and Southern India, The LRFT provided emergency shelter and later on built 2 schools to facilitate education to the poor children

Medical Facilities in Rural Areas

The Trust is facilitating the construction of a modern and well-equipped charitable hospital, the area's first such facility.

Community Development

Community development projects such as the introduction of computer courses for women, as well as courses in Art and Crafts. These will provide the skills needed for people to find employment and perhaps start their own small businesses.

Complex as a Role Model

In close partnership with the village Panchayat, the Trust's objective is to develop the Sanghol complex as a role model that other rural communities in the Punjab could replicate and thereby improve education, health, enterprise and general lifestyles

NNEdPro Global Centre for Nutrition and Health

The NNEdPro Global Centre for Nutrition and Health in Cambridge is an award-winning interdisciplinary think-tank, building upon over a decade of nutrition education, research and innovation. Anchored in Cambridge (UK), NNEdPro convenes central as well as regional networks across six continents geared towards developing adaptable and scalable educational models for nutrition capacity building in health systems. NNEdPro also conducts a range of training courses as well as primary research studies and syntheses to fill key evidence gaps.

The Lord Rana Foundation Charitable Trust (charity registration: RCT XR15072) was originally established to promote charitable and peace-making initiatives in Northern Ireland. In 1997 the trust shifted its focus to India, funding the refurbishment of a high school, and establishing educational facilities at Sanghol, near Chandigarh, Punjab. This has expanded steadily until it is now a 25-acre campus with several institutions offering education and training from nursery level to postgraduate studies.

The complementary strengths of the two organisations have been brought together in an agreement underpinning a strategic partnership between The Lord Rana Foundation Charitable Trust based in Northern Ireland and the NNEdPro Global Centre for Nutrition and Health in Cambridge, working closely with NNEdPro's key academic collaborating institutions including Ulster University and the University of Cambridge.

Key examples of projects supported by the strategic partnership:

1. The Mobile Teaching Kitchen Initiative in India and more widely Already established and operating since 2018, the 'Bhavishya Shakti' Mobile Teaching Kitchen initiative empowers women and communities by sharing knowledge and skills through the medium of nutrition education, with the aim to enhance health and wellbeing and tackle the triple burden of nutrition present in India The project was on track to be sustainable model to empower Indian slumdwelling mothers through entrepreneurship and nutrition education. To reach the stage of sustainability we need funds to support the Mobile Teaching Kitchen unit and ensure a respectable salary for the working mothers for the first few months in a full-scale production. Following the success of the initiative in India, The NNEdPro Global Centre would like to expand its MTK initiative to other parts of the globe.

2. The Nutrition Education Policy in Healthcare Practice (NEPHELP) Initiative in the UK and more widely Aims to train junior doctors, general practitioners and allied healthcare professionals about: The common problems with nutrition care in hospitals and the community; The use of appropriate screening tools to detect malnutrition; The basics of first line nutrition interventions; The need for assessment and management of nutritional deficiencies; Appropriate onward referral to specialist services. The team at NNEdPro hope to develop and spread the NEPHELP workshop further in order to reach as many healthcare professionals as possible within the area covered by the UK & Ireland NNEdPro Regional Network as well as other parts of the globe. It will be important to establish a sustainable pathway for implementing the project on a wider scale, especially to address the needs of general practitioners and allied healthcare professionals in primary care. This is likely where nutritional risk management of disease will have the biggest impact. Other potential innovations include improving the transfer of care between primary and secondary services regarding nutrition.

1. General information

Lord Rana Foundation Charitable Trust is an unincorporated Trust. Its registered office is 60 Great Victoria Street, Belfast, BT2 7BB. The charity registration number is 102822.

2. Accounting policies

2.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements are prepared on a going concern basis, under the historical cost convention and in accordance with Section 1A of Financial Reporting Standard 102, the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland and the Companies Act 2006. They have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice- Accounting and Reporting by Charities, effective 1st January 2019 ('SORP').

Lord Rana Foundation Charitable Trust meets the definition of a public benefit entity under FRS 102.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling (£), which is the functional currency of the entity.

2.2 Going concern

The trustees have assessed that Lord Rana Foundation Charitable Trust has adequate resources to meet the ongoing costs of the entity for a minimum of 12 months from the date of signing the financial statements. For this reason the financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which presumes the realisation of assets and liabilities in the normal course of business.

2.3 Income

All income is recognised once the charity has entitlement to the income, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount of income receivable can be measured reliably.

For legacies, entitlement is taken as the earlier of the date on which either: the charity is aware that probate has been granted, the estate has been finalised and notification has been made by the executor(s) to the Trust that a distribution will be made, or when a distribution is received from the estate. Receipt of a legacy, in whole or in part, is only considered probable when the amount can be measured reliably and the charity has been notified of the executor's intention to make a distribution. Where legacies have been notified to the charity, or the charity is aware of the granting of probate, and the criteria for income recognition have not been met, then the legacy is treated as a contingent asset and disclosed if material.

Income tax recoverable in relation to donations received under Gift Aid or deeds of covenant is recognised at the time of the donation.

2. Accounting policies (continued)

2.4 Expenditure

Expenditure is recognised once there is a legal or constructive obligation to transfer economic benefit to a third party, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is classified by activity. The costs of each activity are made up of the total of direct costs and shared costs, including support costs involved in undertaking each activity. Direct costs attributable to a single activity are allocated directly to that activity. Shared costs which contribute to more than one activity and support costs which are not attributable to a single activity are apportioned between those activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources. Central staff costs are allocated on the basis of time spent, and depreciation charges allocated on the portion of the asset's use.

Expenditure on charitable activities is incurred on directly undertaking the activities which further the Charity's objectives, as well as any associated support costs.

Governance costs include those costs associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charity and include the audit fees, costs of legal advice for trustees and costs linked to the strategic management of the charity, including trustee meetings.

All expenditure is inclusive of irrecoverable VAT.

2.5 Interest receivable

Interest on funds held on deposit is included when receivable and the amount can be measured reliably by the charity; this is normally upon notification of the interest paid or payable by the Bank.

2.6 Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and in hand includes cash and short term highly liquid investments with a short maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition or opening of the deposit or similar account.

2.7 Liabilities and provisions

Liabilities are recognised when there is an obligation at the Balance sheet date as a result of a past event, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefit will be required in settlement, and the amount of the settlement can be estimated reliably.

Liabilities are recognised at the amount that the Charity anticipates it will pay to settle the debt or the amount it has received as advanced payments for the goods or services it must provide.

Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, the provision is based on the present value of those amounts, discounted at the pre-tax discount rate that reflects the risks specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognised in the Statement of financial activities as a finance cost.

2.8 Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.
