

Chairman of the Trustees of the City of Belfast Grand Black Chapter, Benevolent Fund

Independent Examiner's Report

We have carried out an independent examination of the accounts of the above Fund for the year ending 31st March 2023 in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland in compliance with the Charity Act and submit the following report.

The accounts of the Benevolent Fund show an income under £250,000 and therefore we have carried out our analysis based on the accounts being prepared on Receipts and Payments. We confirm that all vouching documentation, including statements and receipts are complete and in order.

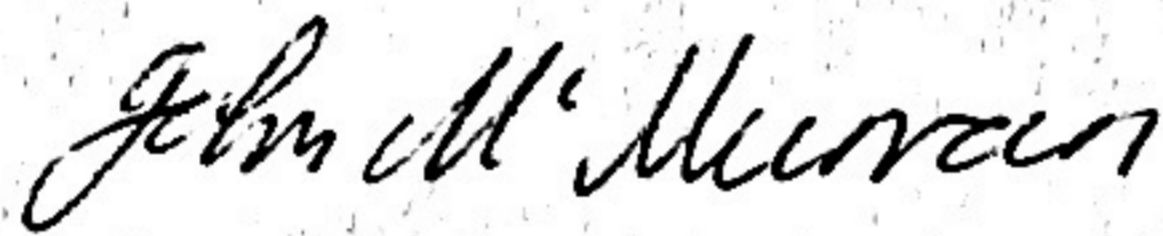

All transactions shown in the accounts has met the accounting and reporting regulations and we are satisfied that the Trustees Annual Report is consistent with our analysis of the accounts.

The examination carried out has raised no concerns in respect of compliance with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act and no further information is required for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

We confirm the accounts are consistent with the standard required by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and in conclusion, we have found no matters that require further attention.
