Trustee's Annual Report

1st April 2023 - 31st March 2024

Kirknarra school of Dance were very proactive and busy during the above financial year. The organisation performed at a number of high profile and community focused events, as well as delivering weekly Highland Dance tuition classes in Kilkeel and Annalong.

As part of the group's outreach, the dance school delivered a number of educational programmes into schools, community groups and youth groups to help give children and young people a better understanding of Ulster-Scots and its dance cultural traditions.

The dance school also organised highland dance competitions and examinations, creating opportunities for its members to further their knowledge in the field of Highland Dance.
