Trustee's Annual Report

1st April 2023 - 31st March 2024

The Schomberg Fife and Drum were very proactive and busy during the above financial year. The organisation performed at a number of community events and festivals to promote Ulster-Scots culture, music and traditions.

As part of the group's outreach, it was also involved in Living History Re-Enactments, creating an opportunity for thousands of people to gain a better understanding of Ulster-Scots identity.

During this period, the organisation delivered a number of educational and cultural outreach programmes within the local community, helping engage with both children and older folk, and giving them an opportunity to experience all facets of Ulster-Scots.

Opening Balance – 1st April 2023 = £3,422.07

Closing Balance – 31st March 2024 = £3,620.97
