A meeting of the Trustees and Members of Aghavilly Accordion Band was held on Wednesday 12 June 2024. The Chairman welcomed everyone to the meeting and thanked them for attending. The audited accounts of the band were presented and discussed. Members were pleased that the band was in a sound financial position.

Expenditure during the year 2023-2024 was principally associated with instrument repairs, insurance, uniform upgrades, and tuition expenses. Members are indebted to Mr Graeme Parr for verifying the accounts and the Secretary agreed to personally thank him.

The Chairman was pleased to state that Band Practices are now taking part on a regular basis, and he requested a good attendance at all practices.

The Chairman was delighted to report that Mrs Olive Scott is happy to remain in the post as Band Conductor. The Band continues to improve under her direction.

The learner's class started in November 2022, and is ongoing and five learners are making steady progress on the accordion.

During the year the Band played at a number of Concerts, Church Services and Cultural events. The performances of the Band at these events were greatly appreciated.
