To whom it may concern,

I confirm that I have inspected the income and expenditure accounts for Garryduff Flute Band covering the period of 1st April 2022 to 31st March 2023 and I find them to be in good order.

The treasurer maintains a high standard of financial record keeping and banking and I am confident that all recorded financial transactions are both transparent and accurate.

The band uses its banking provider for cheque payments when making major purchases.

The band continues to fulfil the obligations of its public benefit as stated on the Charity Commission NI website. It has a proven track record of being successful in receiving significant grants from public bodies and through the organisation of fundraising and social events continues to command strong public trust and financial support.
