STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

The Church of God (Armagh) is governed by a Constitution and is led and managed by four charity trustees, who are also known as Overseers or Elders. The charity is a member the worldwide Churches of God organisation known as 'The Churches of God in the Fellowship of the Son of God, the Lord Jesus Christ', which is currently represented on 5 continents and in 10 countries. Overseers/Elders from each 'district' meet every 18 months for an oversight conference.

ACTIVITIES AND OBJECTIVES

The charity's aim is to preach and teach sound biblical doctrine to our members and adherents. We also preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ to those who have not yet made a decision to become born again Christians. We hold a weekly service which includes breaking of bread. We also organise a number of ministries with the aim of evangelism and fellowship and give a rounded approach to our work. We visit elderly people's homes monthly and carry out activities such as preaching, singing, and prayer. We also hold weekly prayer meetings and ad hoc bible teaching meetings from time to time.

PUBLIC BENEFIT STATEMENT

The direct benefit which flows from our purposes is the advancement of religion by providing teachings and gospel readings; reaching out to people from outside the Christian faith; providing teachings of the bible and nurturing those who confess it; promoting Christian values and service to the community for the benefit of society. These benefits can be demonstrated by the feedback and appreciative comments from many of those who attend and gain help and encouragement; the number of people who regularly attend services and participate in church life. The beneficiaries are the general public from the community in which we live and choose to participate in our activities and services. No harm can come from the purposes of the charity. There is no private benefit from our purposes.
