- b. Names of any other persons who were charity trustees of the Unit at any time in the financial year:

Nature and date of the Unit's constitution:

Governed by Sea Cadet Regulations.

The method(s) adopted for the recruitment of new trustees and how trustees are elected or otherwise appointed (and by whom) in accordance with the Unit's constitution are as follows:

Unit Management Team (UMT) members are elected annually at the Annual General Meeting (AGM). UMT members are elected from the membership of the Sea Cadet Unit which is drawn loosely as being those who have an interest in the unit. In the event of a vacancy during the year (known as a casual vacancy), the UMT have the power to appoint a new UMT member. The UMT member appointed will serve until the date of the next AGM, after which the post will be filled by election.

The Unit's charitable purpose as set out in its constitution is:

To help young people towards responsible adulthood and to encourage them to reach their potential by developing valuable personal attributes and high standards of conduct, using a nautical theme based on the customs and traditions of the Royal Navy.

Public Benefit:

The UMT continue to give due regard to the public benefit provided by the unit in relation to the charitable purpose of the Sea Cadet movement as set out in the activities and achievements outlined above. The aim is to promote the development of young people in achieving their physical, intellectual and social potential as individuals and responsible citizens in a safe environment. In order to achieve this the unit takes young people from all backgrounds, including where possible those with disabilities and develops their skills and abilities by:

- Regular and structural activities with a nautical theme.
- Allowing young people to take part in activities connected with the wider Sea Cadet movement such as seaborne activities, events and competition at District, Area and National levels.
- Availability of formal educational achievements whilst taking courses to earn badges and promotions.
