Our Purpose

Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society.

How the charity is constituted and governed

The Scout Group is governed under the terms of the Royal Charter issued to, and the policies, organization and rules pertaining to, the Scout Association in the United Kingdom.

The 115th Scout Group is represented on and responsible to Lagan District Scout Council, South Region Scout Council and Northern Ireland Scout Council which ratifies the appointment of adult leaders and oversees provision of leader training.

Main Activities

The Scout Group achieves its aims by providing an enjoyable and attractive balanced program of activities. The various Sections of the Group follow the Scout Association programme of instruction and training that enables young people to achieve various awards and badges which are designed to deliver the purposes outlined above. The group has taken part in variety of indoor and outdoor activities throughout the year.

The Scout Group comprises of four Sections to cater for various age groups and is open to boys and girls:

- Squirrel Scouts from 4 - 5 years old.
- Beaver Scouts from 6-8 years old.
- Cubs from 8-10½ years old.
- Scouts from 10½ - 14 years old.

This year all sections have taken part in a variety of activities including badge work, working towards completing their challenge and Chief Scout Awards. As a direct result of the excellent programme delivered by our Section Leaders and their respective Section Teams, the Group continues to thrive, attracting new members each year.
