

Trustees Report

During the year there was one marriage and 3 baptisms of infants and average weekly attendances have started to recover from covid with an average of 53 attending morning worship.

There have been no church outings, however a men's breakfast was held and a good turnout of 53 persons attended with other congregations represented at the event

Our congregation does not have a minister of its own and our congregation is to be linked to First Armagh presbyterian Church in order to be allowed to "call a minister" our convenor provides pastoral care on a need's basis visiting in hospital or those who are ill at home and families who have been bereaved.

The Church again made various donations during the year to PCI United Church Appeal.

Presbyterian Children and young people's Society.

The Royal British Legion.

Newry Hospice.
