ERNE WEST EVANGELICAL CHURCH

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES for the Year Ended 31 DECEMBER 2024

The trustees present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The objective of the charity is the advancement of religion. The church is a member of the Evangelical Presbyterian denomination in the south west of Fermanagh which seeks to uphold and extend evangelical Christianity consistent with the Word of God and Doctrinal Basis.

The work of Erne West Evangelical Church has continued on in a similar pattern as previous years.

Our significant activities are listed below.

Significant activities

Public church meetings each week are the two Sunday services at 11.30am and 7.00pm. The evening service is preceded by a prayer meeting at 6.30pm and we have another time of prayer and Bible Study each Wednesday night at 8.00pm.

During term time, the church hosts a Sunday School for children of primary school age before the morning service. It also has a childrens' meeting on a Tuesday night at 6pm. Children from the local community attend. We also have a fortnightly youth meeting on Friday evenings at 8pm, again this is attended by young people from the local community.

Less regular services would include womens' fellowship meetings, friendship clubs for retired people, and a meeting at a local nursing home. An annual 'Holiday Bible Club' is well supported by local families.

The church seeks to help everyone of every age, as this range of activities clearly demonstrates through worship, Bible teaching and fellowship. All the above meetings are open to the public attend and are promoted as such.

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Public benefit

The Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance and are satisfied that the church activities continue to meet the public benefit requirement and that the initial registered public benefit statement (below) continues to apply to this charity.

1. To uphold and extend Evangelical Christianity consistent with the Word of God and the Doctrinal Basis of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church.

- The direct benefits to the public which flow from this purpose include the provision of a common place for Evangelical Christians to congregate to engage in public worship and biblical teaching. This can be demonstrated by the provision of two public services held each Sunday at 11:30am and 7pm, and a public mid-week meeting held each Wednesday at 8pm. The beneficiaries include the church membership, adherents, local community and visiting public from further afield. There are no private benefits outside those associated with the salary of the church minister.

2. To promote fellowship between and encourage the spiritual prosperity of members of the congregation.

- The direct benefits to the public which flow from this purpose include the provision of a meeting place for people with an interest in Christian and Biblical teaching to meet collectively and engage in activities that promote spiritual prosperity and fellowship. This can be demonstrated by a range of scheduled activities, such as a weekly Tuesday evening bible club for children aged 4-11 attended in the main by children not associated directly with the church, a Friday night youth fellowship meeting for teenagers, a monthly Saturday morning Friendship club for elderly people in the local community to meet and take part in beneficial activities (crafts, arts etc) and an ad-hoc opportunities for women to engage Bible teaching, friendship, fellowship and activities of mutual interest. There are no private benefits outside those associated with the salary of the church minister, or any collection of funds to purchase a gift as a token of appreciation, for example the Friendship club may collect to provide a token gift for a leader in May of each year, prior to the summer recess.

3. To further the dissemination of biblical gospel truth.

- The direct benefits to the public which flow from this purpose include the provision of a meeting place where the Christian message of Christ's redemption is proclaimed, free to all people in the community to attend, in pursuit of increasing their knowledge and awareness of the gospel, biblical truth and their personal faith. This can be demonstrated through the bible teaching in each church service and activity. There are no private benefits outside those associated with the salary of the church minister, or the payment of expenses to a visiting church minister or speaker, or the payment of financial gifts raised by members of the congregation to support associates of the church who are engaged in missionary work both at home and abroad.

This is what our organisation does:

- Regular Sunday Church services open to all of the community promoting Christian worship and Bible teaching
- Children's Bible Club between September and April on Tuesday evenings
- Youth Fellowship on Friday evenings between September and April
- Friendship club for vulnerable pensioners in the community on Saturday mornings between September and May
- Ladies meetings between October and May
- Annual children's Bible week - held second week in August

All activities are open to the public and all are promoted to the public and local community

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Charitable activities include: Church public worship services, Bible teaching, Childrens Ministry, Friendship Club (retired persons), youth ministry, ladies ministry.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The financial position of the church is steady. Income from freewill offerings was £20,725 (2023:£23,237) and other income totalling £4,018 (2023:£14,292). Outgoings totalled £31,584 (2023:£31,704).

Church assets are the church building and hall and also the church manse.

It is also a privilege to be able to provide support to overseas mission work and church giving this year amounted to £3,000 (2023:£2,670).

Going concern

The activities of the Church are dependent upon ongoing contributions from its members. The trustees are of the opinion that the Church continues to have adequate resources and will have sufficient resources at the date of approval of these financial statements to meet commitments which will arise in the year from the date of signing of this report and subject to the continuing support from members to fund on an ongoing basis the Church's current activities and other financial commitments.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The charity is controlled by its governing document, a constitution and code of practice and constitutes an unincorporated charity.

Powers of appointment

The members for the time being of Erne West Evangelical Church can appoint a trustee by a vote at a members meeting of the church.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF
ERNE WEST EVANGELICAL CHURCH

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024, which are set out on pages five to ten.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of the independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under Section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with Section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of preparing the financial statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Income

All income is recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities once the charity has entitlement to the funds, it is probable that the income will be received and the amount can be measured reliably.

Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all cost related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

Taxation

The charity is exempt from tax on its charitable activities.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.
