STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

The Kirk Session

The charity trustees of the congregation are the members of its Kirk Session. Under the congregation's governing document, The Code, the book of the constitution and government of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, the Kirk Session seeks to watch over and promote the spiritual interest of the congregation and of persons not connected with any congregation who are within its bounds. It ensures pastoral care is in place in the congregation and seeks to further the contribution of the Church to Christian witness and service in the local community. The Kirk Session has delegated to its Congregational Committee the temporal affairs of the congregation including administering all funds and property belonging to the congregation. Members of the Kirk Session are ex-officio members of the Congregational Committee. The Kirk Session consists of the ordained minister and the ruling elders of the congregation. All members are entitled to propose, speak and exercise equal votes at meetings, except that the Moderator, the minister in active duty in the congregation, has no deliberative but only a casting vote. Stated meetings of the Kirk Session are held once a month, or as appropriate.

To be chosen for the office of the eldership in the congregation a person must be a voting member and a regular attendant on its ordinances. The selection of those proposed to be called to the office can be either by the congregation or by the Kirk Session. Members are elected if they obtain two-thirds of those who vote.

Presbytery

Under the Presbyterian Church in Ireland form of governance the corporate oversight of a congregation is the responsibility of a Presbytery which superintends generally the spiritual and temporal affairs of the congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. Ballygrainey Presbyterian Church has been assigned to the Ards Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The membership of the Presbytery consists mainly of the active ministers of congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly, ministers who have retired from active duty and an elder appointed by the Kirk Session of each congregation.

The General Assembly

The General Assembly is the supreme court of the Church, representing in one body the whole Church and acting as its supreme legislative, administration and judicial authority, in dealing with all matters brought before it. The General Assembly is normally constituted during the first week in June for worship and to conduct its business. At the end of business it is dissolved. The membership of the General Assembly consists mainly of the active ministers of each congregation, retired ministers and a representative elder appointed by the Kirk Session of each congregation.

DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

The charitable purpose of the congregation is the advancement of religion.

Ballygrainey Presbyterian Church is a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The Presbyterian Church in Ireland, as a Reformed Church within the wider body of Christ, is grounded in the Scriptures and exists to love and honour God through faith in His Son and by the power of His Spirit, and to enable her members to play their part in fulfilling God's mission to our world.

The congregation's mission purpose is, by the grace of God, to be a Biblical, Christ centred community, loving Jesus and others, serving Jesus and others and sharing Jesus with others.

Our vision is, by the grace of God, to be an inclusive, welcoming community of Christ's people of all ages, which:

- is increasingly characterised by love for God, and love and concern for others;
- is committed to the historic Christian gospel as revealed in the Bible;
- is relevant to people of this time and place.

The congregation aims to live out its Mission and Vision as a family of God's people by being:

- A Covenant Community: where our relationships are rooted in the promises of God by living faithfully toward him and toward one another
- An Intergenerational Community: where adults intentionally take the lead to engage with, encourage and nurture younger members to maturity in Christ.
- An Outward-Looking Community: where we want the blessings of God that belong to us in the gospel to become blessings for others beyond the bounds of our community.
- As a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, we believe that the Bible is the supreme authority over all we do, and that the Westminster Confession of Faith, along with the Larger and Shorter Catechisms set out what we understand the Bible teaches on key matters of Christian faith and practice.

ACTIVITIES AND OBJECTIVES

The congregation usually met for worship every Sunday and visitors were welcomed to join. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed on several occasions during the year and all those who have been baptised and who have made a profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ were admitted to the Lord's Supper. The congregation held a number of Bible Study and Prayer meetings and has a wide range of organisations including:

- Presbyterian Women
- Sunday School
- Boys Brigade
- Young Life
- Konnect
- Seniors Fellowship
- Mothers and Toddlers Group
- Bowling Club

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Worship and Prayer

The congregation normally met for worship each Sunday at 11.00am. Evening services were curtailed during the period of vacancy. A midweek meeting on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays each month at 7.30pm provided an opportunity for members to come together for fellowship, to study the Scriptures, and for a time of prayer.

As well as our regular services, during the year we acknowledged God's gift of new life at Sacraments of Baptism, we conducted Marriage Services, and gave thanks for faithful services and sought to comfort those who had been bereaved.

At 31 December 2022 there were 224 communicant members and 205 families connected with the congregation. The average weekly attendance at Sunday morning worship was 150.

Pastoral Care

Members of the congregation who were unable to attend church due to sickness or age were visited on a regular basis by the vacancy convener, elders, Deaconess, and other members.

Mission and Outreach

At a local level the congregation seeks to impact and support the community through allowing use of its facilities and resources, supporting the North Down Foodbank and through the spreading of the Good News of the Gospel. An annual outreach to local children, the Holiday Bible Club was unable to be held in August in the Green Road Community Centre.

At a wider level, the congregation supports the United Appeal for Mission which is a central fund of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland (contributing £9,010 in 2022). This fund enables congregations to support the wider mission of the denomination and to do mission and outreach on a denominational basis beyond what the congregation could do on its own. The United Appeal Fund provides financial support for mission personnel at home and overseas, assists congregations with the deployment of locally based staff, enables church planting, provides grant support for the upkeep of church premises, assists with the running costs of Union Theological College, the Church's training college for ministry students, and financially supports congregations in the areas of worship, discipleship, global mission, outreach, leadership and pastoral care.

The congregation also contributed to the denominations annual World Development Appeal (£1,420 in 2022), the Moderator's appeals (£6,573 in 2022), and other special appeals throughout the year. The congregation also supported a number of external missions and agencies amounting to a total of £7,124.

Presbytery

The congregation was represented at the regular meetings of Ards Presbytery by the vacancy convener and one of the elders. This provided an important link between the congregation and the wider structures of the church.

General Assembly

Along with the vacancy convener, one of our elders was nominated to attend the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland held in Assembly Buildings, Belfast, in June.

Property

The Church Committee continued to provide oversight and maintenance of our suite of buildings to ensure they remained fit for purpose. In addition, general maintenance was carried out to the church buildings and halls during the year. Necessary maintenance and repairs were also carried out in the manse throughout the year.

Organizations

- Sunday School (Lighthouse Club) - approx. 35 children attended on a weekly basis, during the Sunday morning services.
- Konnect – approx. 9 attended a midweek meeting for children and young people.
- Young Life - approx. 45 teens attended each Saturday night, and enjoyed a varied programme of games, activities, Bible reflections and refreshments.
- Mothers and Toddlers (Tweenies) - a safe environment where people from the congregation and local community could come with their children, interact with others, relax and socialize. There were on average 25 infants with accompanying mums, grannies and child-minders attending each Wednesday between 10am and 12 noon.
- Bowling Club - The Club met each Thursday evening, holding tournaments as well as playing home and away fixtures against other local clubs.
- Boys' Brigade - There were over 30 boys registered in our BB Company which met on Friday nights. A range of activities was offered each week, including life skills, Bible study and sports activities.
- Presbyterian Women (PW) - The 35 members of PW met every month to listen to various visiting speakers and enjoy activities together.
- Thursday Afternoon Fellowship met fortnightly except during the summer. Up to 25 senior ladies and men enjoyed fellowship and activities including guest speakers, music and quizzes.

Non-members of the congregation were always very welcome to attend any of these organisations.

Volunteers

The Trustees wish to acknowledge their deep appreciation of those who gave freely of their time by serving on committees and helping with organizations and other church activities.

PUBLIC BENEFIT STATEMENT

The Presbyterian Church in Ireland meets the public benefit requirement by providing benefit to its members and the general public by making known the Christian Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through the advancement of religion.

The direct benefits which flow from the purposes of the Church include the gaining of an understanding in Christian beliefs as set out in the Bible and in the Church's subordinate standards (the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Shorter and Larger Catechisms) leading to spiritual and moral development and opportunities for response to Bible teaching. In turn, this framework leads to practical expressions of Christian beliefs and standards in the local community such as through the care of those in need (including the sick, disabled and bereaved).

Generally, the above benefits are delivered locally by congregations and their members; or are facilitated through presbyteries or are organised and delivered centrally. Local delivery is facilitated by central resources in almost all cases. Public access is made known through use of noticeboards, printed material, press advertisement, websites, and social media or in other ways.

The benefits are demonstrated through regular evaluation of the services and informal and ad-hoc feedback from members, their families, and members of the public.

The purpose does not lead to harm. The only private benefit flowing from our purpose is related to Ministers, Missionaries, Deaconesses, Irish Mission workers and Lay Agents who receive benefits as a result of their holding office or employment. However, this is incidental and necessary in order to further our charitable purpose. There are no other private benefits.

The beneficiaries of this purpose are members, their families, other individuals that the Presbyterian Church in Ireland is in direct and indirect contact with, the community in which pastoral services are provided and other communities throughout Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, and worldwide which benefit from our engagement with and support for both Christian and other secular organisations, charities and individual members of the public.

The Kirk Session has had regard to the Charity Commissions Public benefit requirement statutory guidance.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The congregation's main source of income is members' contributions through the Weekly Freewill Offering. Contributing families during the year donated a total of £99,784 [£97,242 in previous year, 2021].

Total Income of the congregation (including appeals and bequests) during the year 2022 was £196,525 compared to £164,137 in the previous year.

Total expenditure (including that of organizations) was £171,614 during 2022 compared to £181,407 in 2021.

GOING CONCERN

The activities of the congregation are dependent on ongoing contributions from its members. The Trustees are of the opinion that the congregation has sufficient resources at the date of approval of the financial statements to meet commitments which will arise in the year from the date of signing this report and subject to the continuing support from members to fund, on an ongoing basis, the congregation's current activities and other financial commitments.

RISK REVIEW

A review of major risks has been undertaken by the Trustees and systems and procedures implemented to manage identified risks. The principal risks are in relation to the likelihood of reputational damage and financial risks associated with the expectation of ongoing financial support from members.

These risks are mitigated by the Trustees and the Congregational Committee, regularly monitoring the various activities of the congregation at stated meetings and by encouraging members in their regular giving.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements of the congregation in accordance with applicable law and generally accepted accounting practice.

As the congregation's total income does not exceed £250,000, the Trustees have elected under Section 64(3) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 to prepare a receipts and payment account and a statement of assets and liabilities.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the congregation's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time its financial position. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the congregation and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
