Trustees' Annual Report
Year ended 31 July 2022

The trustees present their report and the unaudited financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 July 2022. The trustees have adopted the provisions of the Statements of Recommended Practice (SORP) "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" (FRS 102) in preparing the annual report and financial statements of the charity.

Objectives and activities

The purposes of Northern Ireland Network of Child Contact Centres, as set out in the Company's Memorandum of Association, are as follows:

To relieve the needs of children through the promotion of the efficiency and effectiveness of child contact centres in Northern Ireland, in particular, but not exclusively, by:

- a) the provision of support, information, funding training, services, and to encourage the development of best practice and by such other charitable means as the Charity may from time to time determine to enable the child contact centres to meet their charitable purposes
- b) advancing the education of the public and stakeholders by promoting awareness of the services provided by child contact centres in the area of benefit.

Purpose and public benefit

The promoting and publicising the concept of Child Contact Centres and the importance of continued contact between children and their families after separation and divorce through educating the public, by engagement with other agencies involved in separation and divorce including potential referrers, courts, legal professionals, Health and Social Services Trusts and other relevant voluntary and community organisations.

The direct benefits which flow from this purpose are improved public and key stakeholder awareness of Contact Centres resulting in more families using the service, improving ease of access to Contact Centre services for families by the support of existing and developing of new centres in areas of need within the area of benefit and through developing more efficient processes and procedures with key stakeholders. These benefits are evidenced by annual statistics produced by the Network measuring the use and outcomes of the service for families. There is no risk of harm from the activities of the Network.

The provision of opportunities for constructive discussion of issues around policy, development and research into best practice through the provision of sharing of education, resource material, publications and delivering of training to Contact Centre Coordinators in the area of benefit.

The direct benefits which flow from this purpose are the delivery of a consistent and safe service to families through establishing a sound knowledge base for Contact Centre Coordinators providing up to date knowledge in terms of legislation and best practice, thus ensuring consistency of delivery of service to all families using Contact Centres throughout Northern Ireland.

Assisting with fundraising and engagement with funders on behalf of Contact Centres . The benefit of this purpose is the ensuring of ongoing sustainability of Contact Centres and availability of contact services to families across Northern Ireland. The measure of this benefit is the availability of Contact Centres in Northern Ireland. There is no risk of harm from these activities.

Northern Ireland Network of Child Contact Centres
Company limited by guarantee

Year ended 31 July 2022

Providing a common forum for sharing of best practice, funding training and mutual support for Contact Centres in Northern Ireland. Provides a forum by which common interests in regard to the delivery of Child Contact Services can be progressed and resolved with stakeholders and funders of service. Provides a channel for engaging with agencies involved in separation or divorce including potential referrers, courts, legal professionals, Health and Social Services Trusts and relevant community and voluntary organisations.

Risk management

The board of directors has examined and assessed the major risks to which the organisation is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances, and are satisfied that adequate systems are in place to mitigate any exposure.

Achievements and performance

- Ongoing online meetings with stakeholder groups.
- Parent Information leaflet finalised and produced in conjunction with the Department of Health.
- Ongoing support of Contact centres services during covid pandemic
- Provision of zoom facilities to support centres / practitioners
- Regular practitioner and NINCCC executive meetings facilitated providing training, standardisation of practice and procedures.
- Ongoing delivery of centres accreditations process as allowed during covid restrictions.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Northern Ireland Network of Child Contact Centres
Year ended 31 July 2022

We report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31 July 2022 which are set out on pages 9 to 13.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity trustees (and also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006. Having satisfied ourselves that the charity is not subject to audit under company law, and is eligible for independent examination, it is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and our examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to our attention giving us cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
