STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

The Kirk Session

The charity trustees of the congregation are the members of its Kirk Session. Under the congregation's governing document, The Code, the book of the constitution and government of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, the Kirk Session seeks to watch over and promote the spiritual interest of the congregation and of persons not connected with any congregation who are within its bounds. It ensures pastoral care is in place in the congregation and seeks to further the contribution of the Church to Christian witness and service in the local community. The Kirk Sessions has delegated to its Congregational Committee the temporal affairs of the congregation including administering all funds and property belonging to the congregation. Members of the Kirk Session are ex-officio members of the Congregational Committee.

The Kirk Session consists of the ordained minister and the ruling elders of the congregations. All members are entitled to propose, speak and exercise equal votes at meetings, except that the Moderator, the ministers in active duty in the congregation, has no deliberative but only a casting vote.

The Kirk session met on ten occasions during 2022.

To be chosen for the office of the eldership in the congregation a person must be a voting member and a regular attendant on its ordinances. The selection of those proposed to be called to the office can be either by the congregation or by the Kirk Session. Members are elected if they obtain two-thirds of those who vote.

Presbytery

Under the Presbyterian Church in Ireland form of governance the corporate oversight of a congregation is the responsibility of a Presbytery which superintends generally the spiritual and temporal affairs of the congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. Crossgar congregation of the Presbyterian Church has been assigned to the Coleraine and Limavady Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The membership of the Presbytery consists mainly of the active ministers of congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly, ministers who have retired from active duty and an elder appointed by the Kirk Session of the congregation.

The General Assembly

The General Assembly is the supreme court of the Church, representing in one body the whole Church and acting as its supreme legislative, administration and judicial authority, in dealing with all matters brought before it. The General Assembly is normally constituted during the first week in June for worship and to conduct its business. At the end of business it is dissolved. The membership of the General Assembly consists mainly of the active ministers of each congregation, retired ministers and a representative elder appointed by the Kirk Session of each congregation.

DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

The charitable purpose of the congregation is the advancement of religion.

Crossgar congregation of the Presbyterian Church is a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The Presbyterian Church in Ireland, as a Reformed Church within the wider body of Christ is grounded in the Scriptures, and exists to love and honour God through faith in His Son and by the power of His Spirit, and to enable her members to play their part in fulfilling God's mission to our world.

The congregations mission purposes is to so proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ, by word and deed, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit unbelievers will hear and respond in repentance and faith and having received new life in Christ will grow in maturity.

We seek to advance Christ's Kingdom, both in spiritual maturity and numerically within our congregation, in the local community and further afield.

ACTIVITIES AND OBJECTIVES

The congregation meets for worship every Sunday and visitors are welcome to join. The Sacrament of the Lords Supper is observed three during the year and all those who have been baptised and who have made a profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ are admitted to the Lord's Supper. The congregation holds regular Bible study meetings jointly with Aghadowey Congregation and has a range of other activities including

- Sunday School
- Youth Fellowship
- Presbyterian Women

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Worship and prayer

The congregation normally meets for worship each Sunday from September to June at 10.45am and in July and August at 10.15am. During the week (October – May) the Midweek Programme, in conjunction with Aghadowey Congregation, provides an opportunity for members to meet together for fellowship, to study the scriptures and for a time of prayer. Normally a number of Growth Groups meet in the homes of the members but during 2022 these were replaced by Zoom and alternated with a traditional midweek meeting in the church hall.

As well as our regular services during the year we conducted a number of funeral services for members. We also acknowledged God's gift of new life when three baptisms took place.

At 31 December 2022 there were 145 communicant members and 65 families connected with the congregation. The average weekly attendance at morning worship is 70.

Pastoral care

Members of the congregation who are unable to attend church due to sickness or age are visited on a regular basis by the minister and elders.

Mission and outreach

It has been our priority over recent years to increase our contact with those who claim connection to the congregation but seldom or never attend worship or any congregational activity. This has been done through regular visitation and distribution evangelistic literature.

For some years we have hosted a children's Holiday Bible Club with the goal of reaching out to all the children living in the district, both those who are nominally associated with our congregation and those living with no church connection. This outreach has been successful to some extent in not only attracting un-churched children to the club, but also drawing some new children to our Sunday School. In 2022 we held three-day club with over 60 children enrolled.

The Church hall continues to be used in our children's, youth and adult ministry, with a view to reaching out beyond our nominal congregation.

Our Youth Fellowship meets regularly with both spiritual and recreational activities and special events during the summer months.

Through our congregational missionary committee, we support a missionary family, with regular prayer information made available within the congregation. We have established a link with two congregations in the Republic of Ireland with a view to mutual encouragement.

The congregation supports the United Appeal for Mission which is a central fund of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. This fund enables congregations to support the wider mission of the denomination and to do mission and outreach on a denominational basis beyond what the congregation could do on its own. The United Appeal Fund provides financial support for mission personnel at home and overseas, assists congregations with the deployment of locally based staff, enables church planting, provides grant support for the upkeep of church premises, assist with the running costs of Union Theological College, the Church's training college for ministry students, and financially supports congregation in the areas of worship, discipleship, global mission, outreach, leadership and pastoral care.

The congregation also contributes to the denominations annual World Development Appeal, and any other special appeals.

Presbytery

The congregation was represented at the regular meetings of Presbytery by our minister and / or one of the elders. This provides an important link between the congregations and the wider structures of the church.

General Assembly

The minister and one of our elders were nominated to attend the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland held in Assembly Buildings, Belfast, in June 2022.

Property

General maintenance was carried out during the year.

Organisations

Sunday School

Each Sunday from September to June our Sunday School meets from 10.00 – 10.40 am, before the Church Service. A total of 21 children attended during the year and were divided into four classes with a teacher in each class. We use a professionally produced Biblical based syllabus.

Towards the end of the year a monthly Saturday evening Bible Seekers Club for children of primary school age commenced.

The Sunday School pupils also took part in the service on Children's Day and at Harvest and Christmas.

Youth Fellowship

The Youth Fellowship had 4 leaders, 4 adult helpers and around 21 youth members.

A Youth service was also held and two weekends away took place.

The Fellowship also participated in some outdoor activities as well as some fundraising events.

Presbyterian Women

Around 12-15 ladies gathered in the Church Hall usually on the third Monday of each month from September to December. In the earlier part of the year only two meetings took place due to the Coronavirus restrictions. 'Deeper Together' was the theme for the meetings in the latter part of the year. An annual service was held. The ladies also enjoyed a meal in a local hotel.

Volunteers

The Trustees wish to acknowledge their deep appreciation of those who give freely of their time by serving on committees and helping with organisations and other church activities.

PUBLIC BENEFIT STATEMENT

The Presbyterian Church in Ireland meets the public benefit requirement by providing benefit to its members and the general public by making known the Christian Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through the advancement of religion.

The direct benefits which flow from the purposes of the Church include the gaining of an understanding in Christian beliefs as set out in the Bible and in the Church's subordinate standards (the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Shorter and Larger Catechisms) leading to spiritual and moral development and opportunities for response to Bible teaching. In turn, this framework leads to practical expressions of Christian beliefs and standards in the local community such as through the care of those in need (including the sick, disabled and bereaved).

Generally the above benefits are delivered locally by congregations and their members, or are facilitated through presbyteries or are organised and delivered centrally. Local delivery is facilitated by central resources in almost all cases. Public access is made known through the use of noticeboards, printed material, press advertisement, websites, and social media or in other ways.

The benefits are demonstrated through regular evaluation of the services and informal and ad-hoc feedback from members, their families, and members of the public.

The purpose does not lead to harm. The only private benefit flowing from our purpose is related to Ministers, Missionaries, Deaconesses, Irish Mission workers and Lay Agents who receive benefits as a result of their holding office or employment. However, this is incidental and necessary in order to further our charitable purpose. There are no other private benefits. The beneficiaries of this purpose are members, their families, other individuals that the Presbyterian Church in Ireland is in direct and indirect contact with, the community in which pastoral services are provided and other communities throughout Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, and worldwide which benefit from our engagement with and support for both Christian and other secular organisations, charities and individual members of the public.

The Kirk Session has had regard to the Charity Commissions Public benefit requirement statutory guidance.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The congregation's main source of income is members' contributions through the Weekly Freewill Offering. There were 94 contributors during the year [100 in 2021] donating a total of £25,552 (£24,360 in 2021).

Total Income of the congregation during the year was £61,825 compared to £48,934 in the previous year.

Total expenditure increased from £42,307 to £56,576.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements of the congregation in accordance with applicable law and generally accepted accounting practice.

As the congregations total income does not exceed £250,000, the Trustees have elected under Section 64(3) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 208 to prepare a receipts and payment account and a statement of assets and liabilities.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the congregation's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time its financial position. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the congregation and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
