First Carrickfergus Presbyterian Church

Structure, governance and management

First Carrickfergus Presbyterian Church, North Street, has strong relationships within the local community and has a large and active congregation, which forms part of the wider Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

Weekly services, groups and meetings are held at the Church buildings on North Street, Carrickfergus, and many ongoing projects and events are organised.

The Church is a charity in its own right, working locally and internationally to spread the good news of God's love and the great desire to be reunited with him. We have a Board of Trustees, with a traditional structure of elected office-bearers (Chairman, Vice Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer).

Statutory compliance and administration are overseen by the Treasurer, although all Trustees are aware of their responsibility to act collectively to ensure the proper administration of the church. The Trustees understand their role in safeguarding the assets and resources of the church to ensure that they are used solely in the furtherance of the objectives of the church. The Trustees further understand the importance of acting in the best interests of the charity and avoiding conflicts between it and their personal interests.

Public Benefit Statement

The Trustees confirm that they have had due regard for the guidance produced on public benefit by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and are pleased to report that during the period the charitable company has continued to provide public benefits through the programmes and services we offer.

Objectives and activities

Our vision is to become a loving, accepting fellowship of believers who passionately worship God and reach out to the community in a relevant way. We exist to bring glory to God and to see everyone become faithful followers of Jesus Christ.

Achievements and performance

The Church made external donations in 2022 of £27,874 (2021: £24,629) to worthy causes and projects during this financial period.

Financial review

During 2022, the Church has experienced a decrease in income of 2% and an increase in expenditure of 9% in comparison to 2021. This has led to a deficit for 2022 of £11,760 (2021: Deficit £1,629).

Kirk Session Report 2023

As a Kirk Session we are grateful to God for another year of witness and worship in the centre of Carrickfergus. We give thanks for the devotion and spiritual commitment of our congregation and for the willingness of so many to give of their time, resources, and energy to building up our fellowship together and our witness to others. We also pray for our minister, Cecil, as he brings God's Word to us, not only when we are together for worship but also individually and personally through the pastoral support that is given. Session wishes to acknowledge the gifts and talents of all who participate in the Music Ministry Team, as well as those who work behind-the-scenes on sound and screens, without whose support the worship of the whole congregation would be affected. Likewise, the live streaming of our services continues to provide a valued link for many people, including those who are unable to attend church through illness or age, or who have links to the congregation and for whom online services are a vital way of keeping in touch. March 2023 is also the 20th anniversary of our Musical Director, Mrs Anita Hogg, taking up her post. As a congregation, we are constantly blessed by the leadership, enthusiasm, and deep spiritual commitment which Anita gives to her role, and we give thanks for the way in which she nurtures and develops the gifts of all in the Music Ministry Team.

Rachael and Sonya continue to carry out their work in Youth and Children's Ministry and Women's and Families Ministry respectively. They work across a broad spectrum of areas and needs, so we are grateful for their willingness to adapt and adjust to the opportunities that arise. In this regard, Session have initiated a survey of our Youth Ministry, looking at the challenges that we face and trying to articulate a vision for how we might move forward effectively to engage with the young people in our town and congregation.

Elections were held in the autumn of 2022 for the appointment of a new Congregational Committee. We are very thankful for all those who served on the previous Committee, and we are grateful for those who have been elected and have agreed to serve on the new Committee. The past year has brought to light difficulties with our heating and with the general state of our meeting house. We are deeply grateful for the expertise and time given by Mr Alan Forsythe to address so many of the heating problems, but we also know that there will be important structural and maintenance questions that will need to be faced in the coming months. Rosalind, our Church Administrator continues to be a tower of strength and fount of knowledge in the office. We thank Rosalind for her diligence in carrying out the tasks she carries week on week, and for the pleasant manner with which she greets every caller and handles every query.

We thank all the leaders and helpers in our church organisations for their dedication and ongoing commitment.

For all that God has done, and for all that lies ahead we give thanks and place our trust in his good purposes:

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." Romans 15:13

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of First Carrickfergus Presbyterian Church

I report on the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022, which comprise the statement of financial activities, statement of financial position and the related notes.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

First Carrickfergus Presbyterian Church

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. General information

The charity is a public benefit entity and a registered charity in Northern Ireland and is unincorporated. The address of the principal office is North Street, Carrickfergus, BT38 7AE.

2. Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in compliance with FRS 102, 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland', the Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (Charities SORP (FRS 102)) and the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

3. Accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, as modified by the revaluation of certain financial assets and liabilities and investment properties measured at fair value through income or expenditure.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the entity.

Going concern

There are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue.

Judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported. These estimates and judgements are continually reviewed and are based on experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the Church.

Restricted funds are subjected to restrictions on their expenditure imposed by the donor or through the terms of an appeal.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when entitlement has passed to the charity; it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the charity and the amount can be reliably measured. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- income from donations or grants is recognised when there is evidence of entitlement to the gift, receipt is probable and its amount can be measured reliably.
- legacy income is recognised when receipt is probable and entitlement is established.
- income from donated goods is measured at the fair value of the goods unless this is impractical to measure reliably, in which case the value is derived from the cost to the donor or the estimated resale value. Donated facilities and services are recognised in the accounts when received if the value can be reliably measured. No amounts are included for the contribution of general volunteers.
- income from contracts for the supply of services is recognised with the delivery of the contracted service. This is classified as unrestricted funds unless there is a contractual requirement for it to be spent on a particular purpose and returned if unspent, in which case it may be regarded as restricted.

Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accrual basis as a liability is incurred.

Church expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the church in the delivery of its activities and services for its beneficiaries. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Government grants

Government grants are recognised at the fair value of the asset received or receivable. Grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the charity will comply with the conditions attaching to them and the grants will be received.

Where the grant does not impose specified future performance-related conditions on the recipient, it is recognised in income when the grant proceeds are received or receivable. Where the grant does impose specified future performance-related conditions on the recipient, it is recognised in income only when the performance-related conditions have been met. Where grants received are prior to satisfying the revenue recognition criteria, they are recognised as a liability.

Financial instruments

A financial asset or a financial liability is recognised only when the charity becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at the amount receivable or payable including any related transaction costs.

Current assets and current liabilities are subsequently measured at the cash or other consideration expected to be paid or received and not discounted.

Debt instruments are subsequently measured at amortised cost.

Where investments in shares are publicly traded or their fair value can otherwise be measured reliably, the investment is subsequently measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in income and expenditure. All other such investments are subsequently measured at cost less impairment.

Other financial instruments, including derivatives, are initially recognised at fair value, unless payment for an asset is deferred beyond normal business terms or financed at a rate of interest that is not a market rate, in which case the asset is measured at the present value of the future payments discounted at a market rate of interest for a similar debt instrument.

Other financial instruments are subsequently measured at fair value, with any changes recognised in the statement of financial activities, with the exception of hedging instruments in a designated hedging relationship.

Financial assets that are measured at cost or amortised cost are reviewed for objective evidence of impairment at the end of each reporting date. If there is objective evidence of impairment, an impairment loss is recognised under the appropriate heading in the statement of financial activities in which the initial gain was recognised.

For all equity instruments regardless of significance, and other financial assets that are individually significant, these are assessed individually for impairment. Other financial assets are either assessed individually or grouped on the basis of similar credit risk characteristics.

Any reversals of impairment are recognised immediately, to the extent that the reversal does not result in a carrying amount of the financial asset that exceeds what the carrying amount would have been had the impairment not previously been recognised.
