Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31st December 2022

The trustee's present the annual report and statement of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for Sallaghy Parish Church for the year ended 31st December 2022.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of Sallaghy Parish Church is to support the advancement of the Christian religion by promoting through the work of Sallaghy Parish Church the whole mission of the Church, pastoral, evangelistic, social and ecumenical. Being open to and engaging with society as a whole and offering support for those needing help is fundamental to the practical delivery of the tenets of Christianity.

As a result of activity in pursuit of the advancement of the Christian religion, Sallaghy Parish Church has custody of a large body of records, materials and artefacts of significance to the cultural heritage, the maintenance of which is undertaken by Sallaghy Parish Church as a secondary charitable purpose.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Sallaghy Parish Church fulfils its purposes in the support and advancement of the Christian religion through weekly services, inclusive of Holy Communion, Morning Prayer, Family Services, Contemporary Service worship, additional services (evenings) and those in the church's calendar at Easter, Harvest and Christmas. Services continue to see steady numbers attend with increases at seasonal services and special services held. The parish offers pastoral care and assistance where feasible, to all within the parish family and those within the parish boundary, with visitations to homes, hospital, residential and nursing homes and the provision of home communions to the sick, elderly and housebound.

The 2022 Church Year saw the parish emerge further from the effects of the pandemic and a continued increase in parish activities.

Rev Lorraine was able to provide pastoral support to those in particular need through hospital, residential home and parishioners own home visits without significant restrictions in place.

The Church through its' Church Services and Sunday School, provides worship, fellowship and teaching as an integral part of its support and advancement of the Christian Religion. Normal Sunday services were held and special services were held for the main festivals in the church calendar and these attract some guests from the wider community. Group services were also hosted with parishioners from the other churches attending.

The Mothers' Union and Bowling Club were able to run a mainly normal programme. As well as their monthly meetings, the Mothers' Union was able to host their normal Visitors' Night with people from the wider area attending. Similarly, the Bowling Club was able to run normal practice nights, play league matches and they also hosted a Pairs Fun Competition over 3 nights with bowlers from throughout the county and beyond attending. A Craft Fair was hosted in the Church Hall car park, along with cake sale and tea, coffee, scones tray bakes were provided in a gazebo. The event was attended by many from the wider community.

The parish has donated to mission and other charities, both locally and overseas.

The Trustees' (who have responsibility for the upkeep of church property, Church, Graveyard and Parish Hall) continue to carry out remedial repairs and maintenance to these properties to ensure that all facilities are welcoming, safe and usable by members and the wider public.

The aforementioned activities as described, provide evidence of how Sallaghy Parish Church continues to implement its charitable purposes, the advancement of religion, and meets the Public Benefit requirement.

Sallaghy Parish Church, have through their implementation of the Church of Ireland Safe Guarding Trust, mitigated the potential for harm from its activities.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document and Constitution of the Charity

Chapter III of the Constitution of the Church of Ireland governs Parishes and Parochial Organisation. The Select Vestry members are the Charity Trustees.

Recruitment and Appointment of Select Vestry (Trustees)

All members of the Church of Ireland who are over the age of 18 and are either resident within the Parish or live elsewhere but have been accustomed members of the congregation for at least three months, may register as members of the General Vestry of the Parish, allowing them to attend and vote at meetings of the General Vestry and to stand for election to the Select Vestry. Meetings of the General Vestry are held at least once a year. The Select Vestry is elected as part of this General Vestry meeting. The Select Vestry will hold their positions for a period of one year. Select Vestry members may be re-elected annually and there is no time limit on the number of terms which may be served.

Organisational Structure

The Select Vestry is responsible for the day to day management of the Parish. The Select Vestry consists of the member of clergy serving in the Parish, the Churchwardens, the Glebewardens and generally not more than twelve other members of the General Vestry elected at the General Vestry.

The Select Vestry is chaired by the Incumbent or other member of the clergy officiating in the Parish. Select Vestry members are responsible for making decisions on matters of general concern and importance to the Parish including deciding how Parish funds are to be applied.

The Select Vestry meets at times fixed by the members or by the Diocesan Synod. Special meetings may be convened at any time by the chairperson or the Churchwardens. The Select Vestry met six times in 2022 and the attendance was 76%.

Compliance with Public Benefit

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into this year have helped achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Statement of Trustees, Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the statement of receipts and payments and statement of assets and liabilities in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland with Income less than £250,000 requires the trustees to prepare a statement of receipts and payments and a statement of assets and liabilities for each financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Parish's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the assets and liabilities of the Parish. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Parish and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
