There was no harm flowing from the charities activities and the financial position is sound with no debt. The girls were awarded be well themed badged. They also achieved bronze programme awards. The first year, any from this section had achieved them. The girls planned a camp at Dunluce Guide House, where some of the girls achieved their adventure theme badges, putting up tents, backwood cooking and firestarting, with a trainer coming in from scouts to help teach new skills and knowledge. The girls developed independent and problem-solving skills. Additionally, the girls took part in a colour run. We had four girls begin their young leaders' qualifications with younger sections. Overall, the girls earned approximately 10 badges. The girls were awarded their badges at a special pudding celebration at a local restaurant.

A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to

All trustees and volunteers within the section are aware of the importance of the commission's public benefit requirement. The section ensures it is doing this by encouraging membership from all sections of the community. Having an inclusive and supportive environment that challenges girls to be the best they can be. The section gives girls the opportunity to learn and grow in a safe and supportive environment, try new things and learn about themselves. This gives them the opportunity to develop independence, resilience and leadership skills that will benefit them as they move through life. State in this box the overall financial position, if relevant include details of any debts or any reserves policy. Include current and previous financial figures for income and expenditure, these should be taken from the receipts and payments accounts.
