STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

The Kirk Session

The charity trustees of the congregation are the members of its Kirk Session. Under the congregation's governing document, The Code, the book of the constitution and government of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, the Kirk Session seeks to watch over and promote the spiritual interest of the congregation and of persons not connected with any congregation who are within its bounds. It ensures pastoral care is in place in the congregation and seeks to further the contribution of the Church to Christian witness and service in the local community. The Kirk Session has delegated to its Congregational Committee the temporal affairs of the congregation including administering all funds and property belonging to the congregation. Members of the Kirk Session are ex-officio members of the Congregational Committee.

The Kirk Session consists of the ordained minister and the ruling elders of the congregation. All members are entitled to propose, speak and exercise equal votes at meetings, except that the Moderator, the minister in active duty in the congregation, has no deliberative but only a casting vote.

Stated meetings of the Kirk session are held at least twice in each year or as appropriate.

To be chosen for the office of the eldership in the congregation a person must be a voting member and a regular attendant at its ordinances. The selection of those proposed to be called to the office can be either by the congregation or by the Kirk Session. Members are elected if they obtain two-thirds of those who vote.

Presbytery

Under the Presbyterian Church in Ireland form of governance the corporate oversight of a congregation is the responsibility of a Presbytery which superintends generally the spiritual and temporal affairs of the congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. Glenhoy congregation of the Presbyterian Church has been assigned to the Omagh Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The membership of the Presbytery consists mainly of the active ministers of congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly, ministers who have retired from active duty and an elder appointed by the Kirk Session of the congregation.

The General Assembly

The General Assembly is the supreme court of the Church, representing in one body the whole Church and acting as its supreme legislative, administration and judicial authority, in dealing with all matters brought before it. The General Assembly is currently constituted during the third week in June for worship and to conduct its business. At the end of business it is dissolved. The membership of the General Assembly consists mainly of the active ministers of each congregation, retired ministers and a representative elder appointed by the Kirk Session of each congregation.

DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

The charitable purpose of the congregation is the advancement of the Christian faith.

Glenhoy congregation of the Presbyterian Church is a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The Presbyterian Church in Ireland, as a Reformed Church within the wider body of Christ, is grounded in the Scriptures, and exists to love and honour God through faith in His Son and by the power of His Spirit, and to enable her members to play their part in fulfilling God's mission to our world.

The congregation's mission purposes is, by the grace of God, to help people of all ages become fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ. Our vision is, by the grace of God, to be an inclusive, welcoming community of Christ's people of all ages, which:

- is increasingly characterised by love for God, and love and concern for others;
- is committed to the historic Christian gospel as revealed in the Bible;
- is relevant to people of this time and place.

The congregation aims to live out its Mission and Vision as a family of God's people by being:

- A Covenant Community: where our relationships are rooted in the promises of God by living faithfully toward him and toward one another.
- An Intergenerational Community: where adults intentionally take the lead to engage with, encourage and nurture younger members to maturity in Christ.
- An Outward Looking Community: where we want the blessings of God that belong to us in the gospel to become blessings for others beyond the bounds of our community.
- As a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, we believe that the Bible is the supreme authority over all we do, and that the Westminster Confession of Faith, along with the Larger and Shorter Catechisms, set out what we understand the Bible teaches on key matters of Christian faith and practice.

ACTIVITIES AND OBJECTIVES

The congregation meets for worship every Sunday and visitors are welcome to join. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is observed on several occasions during the year and all those who have been baptised and who have made a profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ are admitted to the Lord's Supper. The congregation holds weekly bible study meetings and has a wide range of organisations including:

- Crèche / Sunday School
- PW
- Joint Youth Fellowship with Clogher PC (some youth join with other local churches who provide other services such as Girl's Brigade and Guides)
- Joint Youth Club with Clogher PC
- A joint Senior Citizen's Club with Clogher PC called T&3.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Worship and prayer

The congregation normally meets for worship each Sunday at 10:45am and at other times for special occasions. During the week the Bible Study provides an opportunity for members to meet together for fellowship, to study the scriptures and for a time of prayer.

As well as our regular services during the year we conducted 2 marriage services and sought to comfort those who had been bereaved during the year. There was 1 baptism in 2023.

At 31 December 2023 there were 79 communicant members and 59 families connected with the congregation. The average weekly attendance at morning worship is 59.

Pastoral care

Members of the congregation who are unable to attend church due to sickness or age are visited on a regular basis by the minister, elders or by a member of the PW.

Mission and outreach

At a local level the congregation has a focus on the surrounding, rural area, which is farming orientated and to the local village of Augher. The congregation's worship services are open to all members of the community and members visit other local congregations to support and encourage them in their work.

Our vision is for outreach to those in the local community, through casual contact and other ways. In 2023 we held a Clay Pigeon Shoot at a local range, followed by a burger and an epilogue to which members of the congregation invited friends from the community. Other, outreach events are being planned for the future.

Through Sunday School, Youth Fellowship and the Mid-Week Bible Study we seek to disciple those within our congregation. Through the Youth Club, and T&3 we seek to engage with people from the wider community who attend these groups.

As a congregation we support a variety of missions through the annual United Appeal for Mission which is a central fund of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. This fund enables congregations to support the wider mission of the denomination and to do mission and outreach on a denominational basis beyond what the congregation could do on its own. The United Appeal Fund provides financial support for mission personnel at home and overseas, assists congregations with the deployment of locally based staff, enables church planting, provides grant support for the upkeep of church premises, assist with the running costs of Union Theological College, the Church's training college for ministry students, and financially supports congregation in the areas of worship, discipleship, global mission, outreach, leadership and pastoral care.

Beyond the United Appeal for Mission we provide financial and prayerful support to a number of other charitable groups. During the year the congregation donated to the following external missions and agencies:

- Children's Society £1,305
- Leprosy Mission £1,369
- PCI Ukraine crisis Appeal £513
- Royal British Legion £257
- Belfast City Mission £300
- CEF £375
- Barnabas Fund £300
- Tearfund £509
- Arab World Ministries £100
- SASRA £600
- DEC Turkey/Syria Earthquake Appeal £1,095
- RUC GC Widows Association and SEFF £1,720

The congregation supports the United Appeal for Mission which is a central fund of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. This fund enables congregations to support the wider mission of the denomination and to do mission and outreach on a denominational basis beyond what the congregation could do on its own. The United Appeal Fund provides financial support for mission personnel at home and overseas, assists congregations with the deployment of locally based staff, enables church planting, provides grant support for the upkeep of church premises, assists with the running costs of Union Theological College, the Church's training college for ministry students, and financially supports congregations in the areas of worship, discipleship, global mission, outreach, leadership and pastoral care. The congregation also contributes to the denominations annual World Development Appeal, Sunday School project and any other special appeals.

Presbytery

The congregation is represented at the regular meetings of Presbytery by our minister and / or one of the elders. This provides an important link between the congregations and the wider structures of the church.

General Assembly

The minister and one of our elders were nominated to attend the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland held in Assembly Buildings, Belfast, normally in June.

Property

The Church Porch, front top gable ,front copings and edgings were painted costing £722.

Organisations

- Sunday School and Bible Class

The Sunday School and Bible Class meet each Sabbath at 12 noon after morning service to instruct and explain the truths and meaning of the scriptures and catechism. There are 10 children in Sunday School and currently no teenagers in Bible Class.

- PW

The PW usually meet 6 times over the winter season using material supplied by the Presbyterian Church in Ireland for approximately half of the meetings and have guest speakers on other occasions, speaking on missionary and charitable matters. Attendance at meetings varies from 16 – 20. Over £1,600 was donated to missionary work of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland.

- Youth Fellowship

Youth Fellowship was revamped in 2023 and now meets on the 2nd and 4th Friday of each month, unless otherwise stated, mostly in Clogher PC Church Hall as this is a joint venture. The Youth Fellowship is open to young people from both congregations and the wider community in the age category P7 upwards. Glenhoy PC currently has one young person participating with 3 volunteers assisting. A varied and interesting programme is followed, which includes a bible study, for the young people to familiarise themselves with God's word. Average attendance is 20, with approximately 50% of those being young people not connected to either Clogher or Glenhoy.

- Youth Club

Youth Club meets on the 1st and 3rd Friday of each month, unless otherwise stated, in Clogher PC Church Hall, as it is a joint venture. The Youth Club is open to children of both congregations and the wider community in the age category of P1 to P7 school years. Glenhoy currently has 5 children attending and 6 young adults participating as leaders. The programme includes activities such as games, craft, tuck shop and bible based teaching. Average attendance is 35 to 40, with over 70% of those being children not connected to either Clogher or Glenhoy.

- T&3

T&3 meets on the 2nd Thursday of each month, unless otherwise stated, in Clogher PC Church Hall. It is open to senior citizens from both congregations and the wider community. The programme includes activities such as a tropical talk and craft. Attendees also enjoy fellowship and refreshments.

Volunteers

The Trustees wish to acknowledge their deep appreciation of those who give freely of their time by serving on committees and helping with organisations and other church activities.

PUBLIC BENEFIT STATEMENT

The Presbyterian Church in Ireland meets the public benefit requirement by providing benefit to its members and the general public by making known the Christian Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through the advancement of religion.

GLENHOY CONGREGATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND
TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT (cont'd)

The direct benefits which flow from the purposes of the Church include the gaining of an understanding in Christian beliefs as set out in the Bible and in the Church's subordinate standards (the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Shorter and Larger Catechisms) leading to spiritual and moral development and opportunities for response to Bible teaching. In turn, this framework leads to practical expressions of Christian beliefs and standards in the local community such as through the care of those in need (including the sick, disabled and bereaved).

Generally the above benefits are delivered locally by congregations and their members, or are facilitated through presbyteries or are organised and delivered centrally. Local delivery is facilitated by central resources in almost all cases. Public access is made known through the use of notice boards, printed material, press advertisement, websites, and social media or in other ways.

The benefits are demonstrated through regular evaluation of the services and informal and ad-hoc feedback from members, their families, and members of the public.

The purpose does not lead to harm. The only private benefit flowing from our purpose is related to Ministers, Missionaries, Deaconesses, Irish Mission workers and Lay Agents who receive benefits as a result of their holding office or employment. However, this is incidental and necessary in order to further our charitable purpose. There are no other private benefits. The beneficiaries of this purpose are members, their families, other individuals that the Presbyterian Church in Ireland is in direct and indirect contact with, the community in which pastoral services are provided and other communities throughout Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, and worldwide which benefit from our engagement with and support for both Christian and other secular organisations, charities and individual members of the public.

The Kirk Session has had regard to the Charity Commissions Public benefit requirement statutory guidance.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The congregation's main source of income is members' contributions through the Weekly Freewill Offering. There were 73 contributors during the year (2022: 76) donating a total of £27,611 (2022: £26,249).

Total income of the congregation during the year was £62,976 compared to £58,427 in the previous year.

Total expenditure decreased from £110,196 to £51,091 in the current year. There was an investment of £50,000 made to the General Investment Fund in the previous year.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements of the congregation in accordance with applicable law and generally accepted accounting practice.

As the congregation's total income does not exceed £250,000, the Trustees have elected under Section 64(3) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 to prepare a Receipts and Payment Account and a Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the congregation's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time its financial position. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the congregation and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
