Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2022

Introduction

This document is the annual report for Riverside Reformed Presbyterian Church, Northern Ireland Charity Number NIC106258. This report relates to the calendar year 2022.

Purpose

The charitable purpose of the congregation is the advancement of religion.

Riverside Reformed Presbyterian Church is a congregation of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ireland. The Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ireland exists to honour and worship God and to share the good news of Jesus Christ His Son.

Structure

Session

The charity trustees of the congregation are the members of the Session, which consists of the minister and ruling elders of the congregation. In case of vacancy (where a congregation has no minister), an acting minister from within the Presbytery (Interim Moderator) is a member of the Session, though without being a charity trustee.

Elders and ministers are chosen by a vote of all communicant members of the congregation. Election of elders, calling of ministers and transaction of Session business are carried out in accordance with the 'Code', the Book of Government and Order of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ireland.

Wider Governance

In the Presbyterian form of church government practised by the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ireland, each local congregation belongs to a Presbytery. Riverside congregation belongs to the Southern Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of Ireland. The membership of each Presbytery consists of the active and retired ministers of the Presbytery, along with a representative elder from each member congregation. The Presbytery is responsible for the spiritual oversight of the congregations within its care and meets a minimum of four times per year.

The highest court of the Reformed Presbyterian Church is its Synod, which consists of the membership of all of the presbyteries of the church. The Synod meets at least annually to transact the business brought to it by its constituent presbyteries and Synodical committees.

Committee

The committee is responsible for the temporal affairs of the congregation, including matters related to the finances and property of the church. The committee is elected each year at the annual general meeting of the congregation and are accountable to Session for their activities.

Volunteers

The congregation relies on the generosity of volunteers in giving their time to assist with a range of activities in the church, including work with children and young people, provision of hospitality, maintenance of the premises.

Activities

Public Worship

Within the period covered by this report, Riverside Reformed Presbyterian Church has provided public worship services for instruction and devotion, held regularly at 11:30AM each Sunday 7:00PM 4th Sunday of month, which are open to all. A midweek meeting for Bible study, discussion, and prayer is also held regularly.

The Lord's Supper has been observed in the past year and participation is open to all who have been baptised and who make a credible profession of saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Pastoral Work

The elders of the congregation provided pastoral visitation to those unable to attend the public worship through age or ill-health.

Denominational Activity

Representatives of the church Session attended Presbytery meetings regularly, and the annual denominational Synod.

Contributions were made to central Synodical funds for general expenses (such as training of ministers and youth work).

Outreach and Mission

As noted above, nationwide and overseas mission work was supported financially through contributions to denominational funds (Reformed Presbyterian Missions).

Youth Work

Instruction of children and young people in Sunday School. New Youth a joint youth group with Newry Baptist Church meets every other Saturday night for Bible teaching and fun.

Public Benefit

Riverside Reformed Presbyterian Church meets the public benefit requirement by providing a place for worship (through weekly services of worship and other meetings), by increasing awareness and understanding of religious beliefs (through public preaching from the Holy Scriptures, literature distribution, pastoral counselling and youth work), and by engaging in and supporting missionary and outreach work, both in the Newry area and overseas.

The work of the church in fulfillment of its purpose does not lead to harm. The only private benefit is for Ministers and others who may receive benefit as a result of their employment. Such benefit is incidental to the work and purpose of the congregation.

The Charity Trustees have had regard to the Public Benefit to the Charity Commission's Public Benefit statutory guidance.

Financial Situation

The primary source of income is mostly member's weekly contributions. Gift Aid is sought for the relevant funds. In 2022 donations amounted to £33,507. The congregation has drawn on some capital which had been invested in previous years to meet the cost of charitable activities and incidental costs.

Statement of Trustees Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements of the congregation in accordance with applicable law and generally accepted accounting practice.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the congregation's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time its financial position. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the congregation and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

As the congregation's income does not exceed £250,000, the Trustees have elected under Section 64(3) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 to prepare a receipts and payments account and a statement of assets and liabilities.

The Church constitution is a historical document and contains a clause that the annual accounts should be audited. A motion has been passed at the June 2019 Synod that the wording of this clause will be changed at the June 2020 Synod. On this basis, and with the approval of the Charity Commission NI that the governing document is being revised, no audit has been carried out and an Independent Examination has been undertaken instead.

Approved by the Session at a meeting on 14th November 2023 and signed on its behalf by:

Independent examiner's report to the Charity Trustees

We report on the accounts Riverside Reformed Presbyterian Church for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are appended.

Respective responsibilities of Charity Trustees and examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is our responsibility as Independent Examiner to:

- Examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act.
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.
- State whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and our examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

Our examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity Trustees concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to our attention giving us cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, we have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
