The Charity was formed in 27 March 2017. The Charity is governed by a Constitution.

The Charity is constituted as an unincorporated association.

The Charitable purposes of charity are advancement of the Christian faith, particularly though not exclusively, through, worship of God, Making disciple of Jesus Christ and expressing God's love to the world in word and action. And

- Such other charitable purpose as shall, in the opinion of the members of the Church in general meeting further the work of the church including being able to help the sick, the homeless and the poor in bad situations. This includes helping individuals get spiritually connected with God and making individuals feel welcome and wanted in this charity

To further these purposes for the public benefit, we carried out the following activities:

The holding of weekly meetings of fellowship.

The main achievements of the charity in the year were: The charity's support of:

The homeless

The sick

The poor

The one seeking for help in terms of relationship, religion, self esteem etc..

The one needing someone to talk to

The one needing a family to spend time with

And many, many more.

The benefits of the purposes are demonstrated through opening up to anyone, being able to show them the love they lack and helping them out by giving shelter and food. We help them get close to God by teaching the to word of God, explaining to them how it works and what is needed to be spiritually connected to God.

We make individuals feel welcome by being open to all cultures, cooking their food, playing their music and admiring their culture. We also create entertainment, which is usually done by the youths. This encourages them and makes them feel like they have a family. The benefits flowing from our purposes are demonstrated through feedback from the beneficiaries.

The trustees have read the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance, and have had regard to this when running the charity.
