

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 30 September 2023.

The Trustees present the annual report for Jessie Eades Memorial Church of the Nazarene, Desertmartin for the year ended 30th September 2023.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church is to uphold and extend evangelical Christianity consistent with the Word of God and the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene.

Achievements, Performance and Public Benefit

The Church has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Church's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Financial Review

Please see separate financial report.

It is the policy of the Trustees to invest and reserve funds to gain the best possible return without putting them at risk.

Our operating receipts and payments report shows a surplus in 2023. A small surplus is expected in the next period.

Going Concern

The Trustees have reviewed the budgets for the year ahead and are satisfied that there are adequate funds in place to ensure the Church can continue its activities and the financial statements for the year ended 2023 can be signed off as a going concern.

Compliance and Public Benefit

The Church has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Church's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Statement of Trustee's Responsibilities

The Trustee's are responsible for preparing the Trustees report and statement of receipts and payments and statement of assets and liabilities in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland with income less than £250,000 requires trustees to prepare a statement of receipts and payments and a statement of assets and liabilities for each financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Church's transactions and disclose with accuracy at the time the assets and liabilities of the Church. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Signed on behalf of the trustees:

Mrs E A Hamilton
