

c21 Theatre Company Limited

Annual Report 2022 - 2023

Completed Sept 2023

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2015)

c21 Theatre Company's Mission

- Provide professional theatre practitioners in the area of benefit further opportunity to develop and practice their craft
- To embrace traditional, digital and interactive methods as well as site-specific projects.

Strategic Goals

- To increase income and ensure sustainability
- To develop and engage with our audiences
- To increase the profile of the Company

Objectives

1. Perform the work of both established and emerging playwrights on a national and international stage.
2. To sustain and expand the organisation from private sponsorship sources, trusts and foundations
3. Tour all productions as extensively as possible
4. Contribute to cultural development throughout Northern Ireland
5. Promote inter-cultural dialogue in order to increase our audiences
6. Develop partnerships with companies' and organisations to deliver joint programmes
7. Promote awareness of the company locally, nationally and internationally
8. Apply the principles of good governance and be financially responsible in all activities.
9. Search and build on opportunities to work in partnership with international companies and organisations

Significant Activities 2022-23

Brenda's Baby – A Gripping Real Life Urban Tale of Redemption reveals a Mother's Struggle

May 2022 – June 2022

This gripping piece of urban theatre is based on the true story of the struggle of a mother who has her newborn taken into care after only five days, due to her drug addiction. The play, which explores her fight to win her baby back, was streamed online in June 2022. A series of workshops took place in collaboration with Women's Aid groups across NI and featured live excerpts from the production.

Our Stories, Scene and Heard - September 2022 – September 2024

This is a two-year project funded by Community Fund NI which will deliver staff reminiscence training for key care workers, and reminiscence sessions on the theme of positive relationships for residents, at 10 individual settings throughout different council areas in NI. The residents will create a personal memory book and contribute these unique stories towards the creation of their own bespoke film.

c21 Theatre Company 2022-23

Board of Directors and Range of Skills

Name/ Role	Skills/ Experience
Derek Smyth, Chair	Former senior administrator Queen's University of Belfast. Specialisms: governance, administration, finance and management.
Sean McCready - Member	Director of Doyle Shipping Group. Specialisms: business management, finance, accounting, legal and HR
Pamela Minford - Member	Skilled Commercial mindset, passionate in people development, experience of managing large teams across all levels. Strong sales professional with multi-site experience.
Trudy Harkness - Treasurer	Trudy joined Ulster University in 2018 as a School Officer within the Business School, she has worked for a range of organisations.
Dearbhla Holohan - Member	Dearbhla is an an Assistant Director at Children's Services Barnardo's NI – Early intervention, family for the rights of children.
Carrie-Anne McAlonan-McCrudden - Secretary	Manager Aisling Ghear Theatre Company. Specialisms: Fundraising, Management, HR, Legal, Finance.

Artistic Program 22-23:

The company had:

- 1 x online production (Brenda's Baby) complimented with workshops through NI with partner Women's Aid.
- 1 x summer film production working with EA and young people in care to create their own short film.
- 2 x summer drama weeks in association with New Lodge Arts Belfast.
- 1 x tour of Living Windows around 3 Mid and East Antrim (MEA) Borough Council towns to animate the windows in the main streets.
- 1 x major project in Santa's Post Office – A free one-month installation for families and schools to encourage footfall to Belfast city centre in association with Belfast One. c21 provided performers and management.
- Phase 1 of Our stories, Scene and Heard involving four care settings as part of a two-year reminiscence project.
- 1 x research and development session on Expecting, a new theatre production working with d/Deaf and hearing actors in the same performing space.
- 1 x anti-social awareness short drama in association with Lisburn and Castlereagh City Council (LCCC) – Toured to four different post-primary schools.
- 1 x fraud in older generation awareness theatre production. Toured to eight different community settings in MEA Borough Council

Audiences:

Our audience figures were approximately - 20,500

Progress:

c21 experienced its most successful year to date in 2022-23. A major funding award from The National Lottery Community Fund in September 2022 was the highlight and alongside further investments from local authorities, the company has significantly increased turnover creating a positive outlook.

c21 is grateful to all the bodies which provided financial support throughout the year -

- Arts Council of Northern Ireland
- Doyle Shipping Group
- National Lottery Community Fund NI
- Mid and East Antrim Borough Council
- Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council
- Halifax Foundation Northern Ireland

TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees (who are also the directors of c21 Theatre Co. for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice)

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements of each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure of the charitable company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by order of the board of trustees.