1st Jan 2019 to 31st Dec 2019

A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purpose for the public benefit and the main activities in the year.

Throughout the year 2019 we had 42 girls in the unit up to May 2019 and 28 at end of year. (Note financial year spread over 2 intake/moving up years).

January 2019 saw the introduction of the new Girlguiding programme and themes which gave a wide variety of learning and activities. We selected 2 themes for the Jan to June period of "Have Adventures" and "Express Myself", and followed in September with "Take Action" and "Be Well". During the year most of the girls had completed their interest badges, with some of the later activities carried over to early 2020 to complete the theme.

The unit also selected to complete the Future Girl badge and made their plastic promise in October.

In May the older girls from the unit went on camp to Lorne for the programme titled "Operation Lipgloss".

Many of the girls also took part in services in St John's Parish Easter, Remembrance Day and Christmas.

The year concluded with a visit to the panto performed by a local group in Lurgan Town Hall.

New Brownies that joined in the September made their promise and received their promise badge

There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and that there was no private benefit.
