Who we are

What we do

PlayforStrays is a small, but dynamic, team that brings toys, food and other necessary items to rescue's in need. Our reach is global, but our focus is Northern Ireland.

A home based charity in Antrim we strive to assist animals in need, be they in rescue, with their owners in a struggling home environment, or pets of the vulnerably housed.

PlayforStrays was incepted in September 2018 and are non-profit in our approach. All donations, physical or monetary, goes towards our charitable mission, purposes and objectives.

Further Achievements

01

Over 36 tonnes of pet items have been donated to rescue's, the vulnerably housed and pet-food banks. 1,000's of animals and people are benefiting

02

Two rescue's, within this year, have told us our supply of food has stopped them closing their doors.

03

Our outreach nights are feeding even more pets of the vulnerably housed in Belfast, letting pets eat and their owners have some less hardship.

04

PlayforStrays now works directly with most major pet-food retailers in Northern Ireland.

PlayforStrays continues to encourage animal welfare, kindness and support to those we meet throughout the rescue and homeless networks.

To ensure that we keep meeting our objectives, members of the public have been encouraged to keep empathy and compassion at the forefront of their mind's, especially when they speak with us about abandonment or rehoming of pets.

PlayforStrays has further met it's objectives to support the animals of those in need, homeless, or vulnerably housed by ensuring a monthly physical presence in Belfast, and online presence as and when required.

The Trustees Report was approved by the Board of Trustees
