

8th August 2024

To whom it may concern,

As the Independent examiner to the financial reports of Warrenpoint Women's Group registered charity number NI109291, I would like to reiterate my responsibility to the group.

The annual reports which I receive from the charity trustees of Warrenpoint Women's Group are in line with their constitution and the reporting procedures within.

I report on the accounts of Warrenpoint Women's Group for the year ended 31st March 2024, which are set out herein.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- State whether matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records

3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland; I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Statement of Assets and Liabilities Report - 2023/24

Assets retained for Warrenpoint Women's Group are for its own use, comprise of office equipment with little value.

No depreciation has been provided on the office equipment as the current estimated value is less than that of their remaining useful life. Office equipment is recognised at cost and depreciate on a straight-line basis over a period of 5 years. Warrenpoint Women's Group therefore owns nothing of substantial value.
